Whose America? Jonathan Zimmerman,2022-08-26 In this expanded edition of his 2002 book Zimmerman surveys how battles over public education have become conflicts at the heart of American national identity Critical Race Theory The 1619 Project Mask mandates As the headlines remind us American public education is still wracked by culture wars But these conflicts have shifted sharply over the past two decades marking larger changes in the ways that Americans imagine themselves In his 2002 book Whose America Zimmerman predicted that religious differences would continue to dominate the culture wars Twenty years after that seminal work Zimmerman has reconsidered arguments over what American history is what it means and how it is taught have exploded with special force in recent years In this substantially expanded new edition Zimmerman meditates on the history of the culture wars in the classroom and on what our inability to find common ground might mean for our future American Book Publishing Record ,1980 The Athenaeum James Silk

EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Luther League Review ,1920 Cracking the Highest Glass Ceiling Rainbow Murray,2010-07-01 This examination of the role of gender stereotyping in media coverage of executive elections uses nine case studies from around the world to provide a unique comparative perspective In recent years more and more high profile women candidates have been running for executive office in democracies all around the world Cracking the Highest Glass Ceiling A Global Comparison of Women s Campaigns for Executive Office is the first study to undertake an international comparison of women s campaigns for highest office and to identify the commonalities among them For example women candidates often begin as front runners as the idea of a woman president captures the public imagination followed by a decline in popularity as stereotypes and gendered media coverage kick in to erode the woman s perceived credibility as a national leader On the basis of nine international case studies of recent campaigns written by thirteen country specialists the volume develops an overarching framework which explores how gender stereotypes shape the course and outcome of women s campaigns in the male dominated worlds of executive elections in North America South America Europe Africa and Australasia This comparative approach allows the authors to discriminate between the contingent effects of a particular candidate or national culture and the universal operation of gender stereotyping Case studies include the campaigns for executive office of Hillary Rodham Clinton United States 2008 Sarah Palin United States 2008 Angela Merkel Germany 2005 and 2009 S gol ne Royal France 2007 Helen Clark New Zealand 1996 2008 Cristina Fern ndez de Kirchner Argentina 2007 Michelle Bachelet Chile 2006 Ellen Johnson Sirleaf Liberia 2005 and Irene S ez Venezuela 1998

The Locusts Dr. Gary Thorn, 2019-04-17 The book title comes from Aubrey Bells Portugal of the Portuguese 1916 Since the murder of King Carlos and of the Crown Prince Luis Felipe on the 1st of February 1908 A swarm of writers have descended like locusts on the land The methodology is to connect a specific group of critics in the years before the First World War to a constellation of general attitudes about Portugal and the Portuguese speaking world Intersecting personal narratives are used not as an argument for individual agency as dominant cause of historical change but as contrasting discourses upon revisited events The primary focus is to explain how the critical context of Portugals history that incubated The Locusts crystalised into the pressure group to free political prisoners A key part of that context was the extant campaign against Portuguese slavery in West Africa E M Tenison the Secretary of the British Protest Committee left a unique 200 page unpublished personal memoir previously unconsulted by any published historian The historiography of the First Republic in English is slight There are no comparative studies in book form just a few scholarly articles on diplomacy alone for example by Glyn Stone Richard Langhorne And likewise there is no study of Anglo Portuguese relations from below i e popular pressure to influence government policy British Critics of Portugal before the First World War problematises Anglo Portuguese relations around the concept forwarded by Amilcar Cabral and others that Portuguese colonialism was the colonialism of the semi colonised It makes a broader contribution to the study of empires and to the causes of the First World War in AngloPortugueseGerman relations
