Rielly, 2024-02-08 America's entrance into the wars in Vietnam came as a result of several factors Among them was the necessity of bolstering French influence in the area in the face of mounting communist expansion This expansion was intensified by the outbreak of the Korean War making it necessary for the United States to revamp its Southeast Asian policy During the French era control of Vietnam's rivers streams and canals became necessary This led various factions to develop specialized military units heavily dependent on new types of river craft that could traverse the myriad waterways in Vietnam The focal point of this study is a new assessment of the conduct of river warfare Drawing on little known French Vietnamese and American sources and materials it sheds light on an important aspect of the Vietnam War Chapters also detail numerous aspects of river warfare not generally covered in other books on the subject

Hodge, 2022-11-11 Preterism is the belief that the majority if not all of the eschatological passages in the New Testament have already been fulfilled in the first century Although there are some needed correctives that preterism provides when interpreting eschatological statements in the Synoptic Gospels the interpretive methodologies employed are largely plagued with exegetical and logical fallacies On top of these the genre of apocalyptic is often completely lost on the modern interpreter and as a result leads to numerous non sequiturs made when it comes to the nature and time of biblical eschatology This book seeks to correct these hermeneutical missteps by providing exegetical principles that may help guide the reader to a more biblically sound conclusion concerning the timing and nature of biblical eschatology

Evidence for the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus Christ Examined through Islamic Law Suheil Madanat, 2023-08-31 For almost 1 400 years Christians have wrestled with appropriate ways to defend their claims to truth in the context of Islam Dr Suheil Madanat proposes that the answer lies neither in the antagonization of polemics nor apologetic arguments rooted in Western legal systems but instead in utilizing the authority of Islamic law itself While evidence for the resurrection has been legally examined since the seventeenth century legal apologetics has primarily utilized secular law systems such as Anglo American common law In this study Dr Madanat tests evidence for the crucifixion and resurrection against Islam s fixed theocratic law of Sharia Offering an overview of the evolution and constitution of Islamic law Dr Madanat examines how eyewitness testimonies and confessions in the New Testament hold up against Islam s strict standards for evidence Authenticating the Gospels using the same standards Islamic scholars use to defend the authenticity of the Qur an and Sunna Madanat examines the testimonies of the four evangelists the confessions of James and Paul and the circumstantial evidence offered by archeology church history and the Christian impact on civilization This book engages with Islam and its sacred texts seriously and with respect providing a powerful resource for those interested in apologetics and comparative religion

The Crisis of Evangelical Christianity Keith C. Sewell,2016-04-26 In the broad context of Christianity as it developed over two millennia and with special reference to the last three centuries this discussion finds that Evangelicalism has repeatedly offered a reduced and distorted understanding of the faith The evangelical outlook is much less scriptural than evangelicals generally assume When it comes to appreciating the order of creation our calling to develop integral Christian thinking and living the religious significance of culture and the coming of the kingdom reductionist Evangelicalism struggles with its only rarely acknowledged deficiencies As a result we have all too often ended up with a Christianity shorn of its cosmic scope and wide cultural implications and restricted to institutional church life and the cultivation of private spiritual experience The consequences are frequently enervating and corrosive Without disregarding what is important in the past evangelicals are here challenged to take the Bible much more seriously and thereby transcend the limitations of their habitual reductionism Evangelicals are encouraged to embrace an integral and full orbbed understanding of Christian discipleship that will equip the faithful to address the deep and complex challenges of the twenty first century

Rebecca Bedell,2018-11-13 In this volume Bedell examines received ideas about sentimental art Countering its association with trite and saccharine Victorian kitsch she argues that major American artists from John Trumbull and Charles Willson Peale in the eighteenth century and Asher Durand and Winslow Homer in the nineteenth to Henry Ossawa Tanner and Frank Lloyd Wright in the early twentieth produced what was understood in their time as sentimental art art intended to develop empathetic bonds and to express or elicit social affections including sympathy compassion nostalgia and patriotism After Dispensationalism Brian P. Irwin,2023-05-03 What God wants his people to know about the end times Christians fixation on the end times is not new While eschatological speculation has sometimes resulted in distraction or despair Scripture does speak about the end So what does God most want us to know and do with prophecy In After Dispensationalism Brian P Irwin and Tim Perry sympathetically yet critically sketch the history beliefs and concerns of dispensationalism Though a minority view in the sweep of church history and tradition dispensationalism is one of the most influential end times systems today and there is much to learn from it And yet sometimes it gets sidetracked by overlooking the prophets main concerns Irwin and Perry reexamine the key texts and show that Ezekiel Daniel and Revelation primarily give a word of hope to God s people
