Preacher and Homiletic Monthly ,1887 At the Intersection of Hermeneutics and Homiletics Yung Suk Kim,2025-04-18

While hermeneutics involves comprehensive study of the biblical text whether through historical or literary or reader focused approaches homiletics is concerned with a selected theme message and on the composition and delivery of sermon discourse aimed at a particular audience But the border between hermeneutics and homiletics is blurry because both disciplines require readers to engage the biblical text from their own contexts This collection deals with the intersection of hermeneutics and homiletics by exploring two revelatory texts one from the Hebrew Bible and the other from the New Testament the book of Ruth and Matthew 15 21 28 a Canaanite woman s encounter with Jesus Both reflect agonizing issues that readers must tackle im migration family community identity agency race ethnicity gender class culture economy and religion A diverse group of scholars brings their transgressive perspectives to the above texts Unfolding new areas of interest inquiry and insight they will transgress authoritative readings of biblical texts fashion hermeneutic horizons in dialogue with the text and forge homiletic trajectories toward contemporary audiences Without limiting interpretation to a box this volume looks to register bold voices to perennial issues in our day Homiletic transformation occurs through the relentless resistant reading of the text and through reimagining our world The Homiletic Review ,1887 Introduction to the Practice of

African American Preaching Frank A. Thomas,2016-11-15 The Introduction to African American Preaching is an important groundbreaking book This book acknowledges African American preaching as an academic discipline and invites all students and preachers into a scholarly dynamic and useful exploration of the topic Author Frank Thomas opens with a bus tour study of African American preaching He shows how African American preaching has gradually moved from an almost exclusively oral to an oral written tradition Readers will gain insight into the history of the study of the African American preaching tradition and catch the author s enthusiasm for it Next Thomas traces the relationship between homiletics and rhetoric in Western preaching demonstrating how African American preaching is inherently theological and rhetorical He then explores the question what is black preaching Thomas introduces the reader to methods of close reading and ideological criticism And then demonstrates how to use these methods using a sermon by Gardner Calvin Taylor as his example The next chapter considers the question what is excellence in black preaching The next chapter seeks to create bridges and dialogue within the field of homiletics and in particular the Euro American homiletic tradition The goal of this chapter is to clearly demonstrate connections between the African American preaching tradition and the field of homiletics Thomas next turns to questions about the relevancy of the church to the Millennial generation Specifically how will the African American church remain relevant to this generation which is so deeply concerned with social justice The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching Kenyatta R. Gilbert,2011-04-01 The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching is a constructive effort to examine the historical contributions of African American preaching the challenges it faces today and how it might become a renewed source of healing and strength for at risk communities and churches from publisher description Questions Preachers Ask Scott Black Johnston, Ted A. Smith, Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 2016-10-01 How do we preach in a way that affirms Christian theology while also honoring the insights of other faith traditions How do we preach about and help create genuine Christian community in a social networking culture Questions Preachers Ask examines many questions that are on the minds of preachers today questions that focus on how to preach the gospel in a culture where biblical knowledge cannot be presumed and where the Bible is often viewed as untrustworthy Well known preachers scholars and authors including Barbara Brown Taylor Gail O Day Anna Carter Florence Richard Lischer and Thomas Lynch provide the answers This book compiled to honor writer preacher teacher and scholar Thomas G Long at the end of his teaching career addresses practical questions such as How do we proclaim the good news to young adults who are on the margins of church or have left it and How do we preach to faith communities that are highly diverse Perfect for preachers at any stage of their ministry these essays offer hope and guidance for handling the difficult task of preaching in today s congregations

Postcolonial Homiletics? Wessel Wessels, 2024-03-29 This book pursues the question of consciousness and thought through the art of preaching in a postcolonial era Indeed the past has bestowed upon the present the legacy of colonization and in the South African context apartheid However the endeavor of postcolonizing theology and homiletics is a contentious space that has not been settled This book promotes a counterargument to the prevalent directions of decolonization by focusing on three themes of importance consciousness perspective and identity through the insights of primary postcolonial sources

Collaborative Practical Theology Henk de Roest, 2019-10-07 In Collaborative Practical Theology Henk de Roest documents and analyses research on Christian practices as it can be conducted by academic practical theologians in collaboration with practitioners of different kinds in Christian practices all around the world Preaching Must Die! Jacob D. Myers, 2017-10-18 The real question for homiletics in our increasingly postmodern post Christian contexts is not how we are going to prevent preaching from dying but how we are going to help it die a good death Preaching was not made to live At most preaching is a witness a sign a crimson X marking a demolition site The church has developed sophisticated technologies in modernity to give preaching the semblance of life belying the truth preaching was born under a death sentence It was born to die Only when preaching embraces its own death is it able to live This book then is a bold homiletical manifesto against preaching in support of preaching and beyond preaching to the entire worship experience It troubles modern homiletical theologies in light of the trouble always already at work within preaching Hereby it supports a way of preaching and teaching preaching that moves counter to the wisdom of this world It aims to joins in God s self revealed counterlogic of superabundance that saturates and thereby breaks open worldly systems of thought and practice The purpose of this book is to expose preaching to its own death to help it embrace its death so that it can discover what eternal and abundant life might look and feels like Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly , 1908 The Gendered Pulpit

Roxanne Mountford, 2003 In this feminist investigation into the art of preaching one of the oldest and least studied rhetorical traditions Roxanne Mountford explores the relationship between bodies space race and gender in rhetorical performance and American Protestant culture Refiguring delivery and physicality as significant components of the rhetorical situation The Gendered Pulpit Preaching in American Protestant Spaces examines the strategies of three contemporary women preachers who have transgressed traditions rearranged rhetorical space and conquered gender bias to establish greater intimacy with their congregations Mountford's examinations of the rhetoric inherent in preaching manuals from 1850 to the present provide insight into how manliness has remained a central concept in American preaching since the mid nineteenth century The manuals illustrate that the character style method of delivery and theological purpose of preachers focused on white men and their cultural standing leaving contemporary women preachers searching for ways to accommodate themselves to the physicality of preaching Three case studies of women preachers who have succeeded or failed in rearranging rhetorical space provide the foundation for the volume These contemporary examples have important implications for feminist theology and also reveal the importance of gender space and bodies to studies of rhetoric in general Mountford explores the geographies of St John's Lutheran Church and the preaching of Rev Patricia O Connor who reformed rhetorical space through the delivery of her sermons At Eastside United Church of Christ Mountford shows Rev Barbara Hill employed narrative style and prophetic utterance in the tradition of black preaching to address gender bias and institute change in her congregation The final case study details the experiences of Pastor Janet Moore and her struggles at Victory Hills United Methodist Church where the fractured congregation could not be united even with Pastor Moore's focus on theological purpose and invention strategies Publisher description The Third Room of Preaching Marianne Gaarden, 2017-09-29 In this cutting edge homiletical study Marianne Gaarden offers new perspectives for understanding how listeners create meaning when hearing a sermon Drawing on sociological psychological and other empirical research Gaarden presents the notion of the Third Room of Preaching the place where the preacher's words and the listener's prior experiences come together to create a surplus of meaning outside of both the preacher's intent and the listener's frame of reference The preacher cannot control the production of meaning but must surrender to the process giving up the role of creator of meaning in order to become a vessel and a tool for meaning's creation Gaarden's insights challenge conventional understandings of preaching and invite homileticians to reflect on the implications for the sermon as an act of communication The book includes an appendix that helps to facilitate the Third Room model in homiletics classes Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A. Ajibade, 2021-06-30 How can expository preaching rooted in a textual analysis of Scripture be effectively utilized in oral cultures In Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A Ajibade engages this challenge directly offering practical techniques for integrating African oral elements such as myths proverbs folklore dance drama poetry and storytelling into preaching that is both biblical and African Alongside numerous examples and tools Ajibade provides a rich overview of the nature of orality the history and development of African preaching and the reason biblical exposition must be central to gospel proclamation He reminds us that it is the word of God incarnated among us that has the power to transform lives and revitalize nations Contextualized expository preaching is not therefore one technique to be utilized among many it is rather the heart of biblical teaching and the future of the African church While contributing significantly to studies in contextualization and homiletics this book is immediately applicable to practitioners especially African preachers and those working in oral contexts

Banting, 2023-07-21 As the complexity of our world increases exponentially there is need for preachers to understand their identities and roles in this new reality and to navigate the landscape of the new challenges facing the contemporary church Blayne Banting offers seasoned reflections on how contemporary preachers can build upon what cannot change in ways that frees them to practice their ministries creatively in ways which must change

Preaching from Memory to Hope Thomas G. Long, 2009-03-19 In this compelling and hard hitting book respected preacher and teacher Thomas Long identifies and responds to what he sees as the most substantive theological forces and challenges facing preaching today The issues he says are fourfold the decline in the quality of narrative preaching and the need for its reinvigoration the tendency of preachers to ignore God's action and presence in our midst the return of the church's old nemesis gnosticism albeit in a milder form evidenced in today's new spirituality and the absence of eschatology in the pulpit Long once again has his finger on the pulse of American preaching demonstrated by his creative responses to these challenges Whether he is calling for theologically smarter and more ethically discerning preaching providing a method of interpretation that will allow pastors to recover the emphasis on God in our midst or encouraging a kind of interfaith dialogue with gnosticism he demonstrates why he has long been considered one of the most thoughtful and intelligent preachers in America today
