An Editorial More Good Things Are Needed English Edition:

Everyone Needs an Editor (Some of Us More Than Others) Larry McCoy, 2015-05-10 Rude raucous and often funny in a newsroom Larry McCoy has stuck to that winning combination in this memoir covering his life from an inexperienced writer at UPI to news director at CBS Radio to a retired journalist who is as appalled as non-journalists by what many news organizations consider news these days Too old to be hired again now he pokes fun at former employers and many of their products and practices He denounces performance reviews the U S media s obsession with the British royal family broadcasters who talk down to their audience journalists who make up stories know nothing bosses and a universe where virtually everyone feels the need to tweet Never comfortable swimming with the tide McCoy says the best journalist he ever met didn't even finish high school and that newswomen may ask better questions than newsmen As a public service to workers in all professions he provides guidelines on how to write a smart snappy note to your boss and if that doesn't do the trick to your boss s boss But he has kind words for writers producers overseas stringers desk assistants technicians and yes even a few anchors
