Part 1: Complete the following chart using information from the lesson in your own words . An example is provided.
Social Problem of the Industrial Age	Why was there a need for reform for this social problem?	How was the problem addressed during the Industrial Age?	Was the Social Problem addressed successfully? (Is it still an issue today?) (Be sure to support your opinion with evidence from the lesson or your research)
Tenement housing	City dwellers were having to face horrible living conditions while also being overcrowded	Cities were able to find safer water and reduced pollution by creating sewage plants and mandating sanitary conditions, creating fire escapes, and access to natural light	Unfortunately this problem continued to grow as city dwellers faced more problems since the population grew and conditions were still very poor, till this day we still see people living in unsafe housing or even homelessness
Child Labor	Children were forced to work long hours maintaining adult tasks and having to face poor	The Keating-Owen Child Labor Act was created to prevent children under 14 years of age to work in	Child labor is still a large problem today as about 160 million children under 18
