

GRADE 2 REPORT CARD COMMENTS

SCIENCE

During our unit on "Magnets and Magnetism" students made predictions, conducted several experiments, recorded observations, and drew conclusions based on their findings. ___ displays a keen interest in science and regularly contributes to class discussions. He conducts investigations with confidence and has an appreciation for the scientific method.

The two topics we studied in Science this term were "Exploring Liquids" and "Hot and Cold Temperatures". Through our experiments students developed their skills to predict, observe, test, record, and discuss. At the end of the unit students applied their knowledge of insulating materials and the states of matter to design, build, and improve an insulating device to keep an ice cube cold. ___ describes properties of water and other liquids, and explains the importance of water to living and nonliving things. He recognizes the effects of heating and cooling on materials, and identifies methods to change the temperatures in a variety of environments.

The topics we studied in the final term were "Boats and Buoyancy" and "Small Flying and Crawling Animals". Students described, classified and ordered materials on the basis of their buoyancy. They also modified materials to make them float or sink. Using what he learned about buoyancy, stability, and waterproofing, ___ can evaluate the appropriateness of materials needed to design and construct a floating device. He compares insects based on their physical characteristics and identifies what they require to meet their basic needs.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Our first area of focus in Social studies this term was on mapping skills. Next we defined what makes Edmonton a unique place to live, and compared it with life in Saskatoon. ___ can create simple maps and use cardinal directions accurately, as well as identify the city, province, and country he lives in. He independently compares and contrasts life between the two prairie communities we are studying.

This term we learned about social, economic, regional and cultural factors that affect the quality of life of people who live in Nunavut. Students gained their knowledge through videos, books, guest speakers, and photographs. ___ can effectively compare an Inuit community with a prairie community. He responds and participates enthusiastically during class discussions, and shows an appreciation for cultural differences. He can develop critical questions, research information, and summarize his findings independently.

The focus in Social Studies this term has been the exploration and understanding of life in Acadian communities in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. ___ gathers information from a variety of resources and organizes key concepts using graphic organizers. He stays focused and paces himself well during independent study time. He can confidently present her Canadian city research findings to the class. ___ effectively compares and contrasts his own quality of life with children from the provinces we have studied this year.

The Principal's Companion Pam Robbins, Harvey B. Alvy, 2003 This book adds extremely relevant knowledge and skills for innovative reformers and for more traditional leaders alike It provides a solid set of interesting and shrewd suggestions that can be used immediately by practising principals From the Foreword by Kent D Peterson Professor Department of Educational Administration University of Wisconsin Madison Despite the administrative leadership training that most principals receive in university courses their most useful learning doesn t occur until they are on the job And the new knowledge much of it the result of trial and error success and failure is gained in relative isolation simply because there is no one else at that responsibility level within the school Pam Robbins an educational consultant and Harvey B Alvy a practicing principal offer a well organized interactive manual for the role of principal They have worked with hundreds of schools educators and other organizations around the world collecting data that form the basis for The Principal's Companion. This easy to read book combines the most helpful tried and true strategies with the most relevant leadership research and theory. The authors discuss creative leadership and necessary skills, the wide variety of roles played by principals, how to create a learning community, personal and professional issues, and much more. Quotes from practicing principals are included throughout the book, and readers are encouraged to jot down their own reflections about each chapter theme. The Principal's Companion is a rare opportunity to collaborate with other principals, an excellent professional resource that will be referred to again and again. Ideal for practicing and aspiring principals, it is also highly useful as a text for administration courses.

On Grades and Grading Timothy Quinn, 2013-07-19 Too often teachers and schools operate with grading systems that are vestiges of an antiquated educational model with little fresh thinking as to how grades affect student learning. In On Grades and Grading, Timothy Quinn addresses this problem head on, offering an in depth and nuanced analysis of the purposes grades can serve as well as their impact on student learning. Quinn takes a hard look at the three pedagogical purposes for grades: providing data about students, motivating students, and providing students with feedback on their work. He then goes on to address a number of specific and at times controversial grading related issues, including grade inflation, grading collaborative work, grading and failure, the grading of behaviors and dispositions, and the use of technology in grading. Educators will find both concrete strategies for improving their grading systems and policies, and perhaps most importantly, a rich resource for improving student learning. Ultimately, Quinn hopes to create a world in which students, parents, and teachers all pay more attention to learning and less to grades themselves.

The First-Year Teacher's Survival Guide Julia G.
