Letter From a Tea Garden Abi Oliver,2022-08-26 1965 an English country mansion Eleanora Byngh is not in a good state Wedded to the whisky bottle and with her house crumbling round her ears her days seem destined to follow a lonely and grumpy downhill path hen the post brings an unexpected invitation to return to the Indian tea gardens of her childhood Eleanora risks breaking open painful memories of her younger years lived across a tumultuous century As relationships with her new found family face their own challenges she is offered fresh truths the chance of love and unexpected new life if she is prepared to take them By the author of A New Map of Love      Elegy for the East Dr Dhrubajyoti Borah,2020-11-02 Before the relentless march of history the lone individual is helpless Yet it is men whose collective efforts give history its momentum and ushers in change of eras These changes are tempestuous at times like a churning that brings up both nectar and scum Elegy for the East explores the utter helplessness and travails of man in face of exactly such overwhelming odds A narrative not far from truth where an uncaring anonymous and overbearing State creates and or co creates situations of social and political strife and where innocent and beautiful dreams of the masses die in the stony bed of terror and counter terror The sylvian countryside of Assam with its green paddy fields hide memories of bloodshed death rape and terror And through all these the eternal narrative of man s quest for peace and meaning shine like a beacon This novel is a work of fiction the characters bear no resemblance to any person dead or alive Yet they walked amongst us all in flesh and blood in thoughts and dreams Fiction that reflects reality in a more truthful way A masterly work of a master storyteller      The Baptist Missionary Magazine ,1849
