New York Magazine, 1995-11-20 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Still Moving Steven Higgins, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2006 Founded in 1935 The Museum of Modern Art's Department of Film and Media is home to one of the most important film archives in the world The collections include over twenty thousand works from the earliest movies to the most contemporary moving picture art from a twenty seven second film made by W K L Dickson and William Heise in 1893 to video art and media works by artists such as Chris Marker Pipilotti Rist and Joan Jonas Here for the first time is a volume that celebrates this remarkable archive with over five hundred images from individual films drawn largely from the Museum's collection of still photographs Special sections detail significant collections including those of works by Andy Warhol and Joseph Cornell of films starring Douglas Fairbanks and of films produced by the Edison and Biograph companies two of the world's first commercial film producers An introduction by Steven Higgins Curator in the Department of Film and Media outlines the history of the

Museum's collections and gives some insight into how The Museum of Modern Art goes about fulfilling its mandate acquiring preserving and exhibiting these extraordinary and singular works which form such a large part of the history of the moving image
