

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

 Christine Harrison,Constant Leung,David Pepper,2023-10-19 This book explores and builds on the extraordinary work of Professor Paul Black across assessment and pedagogy across the curriculum including STEM humanities and social science subjects This book explores the influence that Black has had within educational settings focusing on interpretations of the work and scholarship he has achieved across a range of settings and on the ways scholars who have worked with him or been influenced by his ideas have developed their research and teaching The contributions are presented under three thematic sections each of which reflects a set of shared educational concerns and values drawing on the natural and social sciences and developments in public policy These concerns and values with their emphasis on teacher assessment provide a basis for a strategic informed and coherent response to challenges in education such as the cancellation of public examinations in the
