Rammig, Jon Timmis, Marilyn Wolf, 2010-08-06 st This volume contains the proceedings of two conferences held as part of the 21 IFIP World Computer Congress in Brisbane Australia 20 23 September 2010 th The first part of the book presents the proceedings of DIPES 2010 the 7 IFIP Conference on Distributed and Parallel Embedded Systems The conference introduced in a separate preface by the Chairs covers a range of topics from specification and design of embedded systems through to dependability and fault tolerance rd The second part of the book contains the proceedings of BICC 2010 the 3 IFIP Conference on Biologically Inspired Collaborative Computing The conference is concerned with emerging techniques from research areas such as organic computing autonomic computing and self adaptive systems where inspiration for techniques arises from exhibited behaviour in nature and biology. Such techniques require the use of research developed by the DIPES community in supporting collaboration over multiple systems. We hope that the combination of the two proceedings will add value for the reader and advance our related work.

Special-interest Autos, 1974      Principles and Practice of Constraint Programming Peter J. Stuckey, 2008-09-22 This volume contains the proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Principles and Practice of Constraint Programming CP 2008 held in Sydney Australia September 14-18 2008. The conference was held in conjunction with the International Conference on Automated Planning and Scheduling ICAPS 2008 and the International Conference on Knowledge Representation and Reasoning KR 2008. Information about the conference can be found at the website <http://www.unimelb.edu.au/cp2008>. Held annually the CP conference series is the premier international conference on constraint programming. The conference focuses on all aspects of computing with constraints. The CP conference series is organized by the Association for Constraint Programming ACP. Information about the conferences in the series can be found on the Web at <http://www.cs.ualberta.ca/ai/cp>. Information about ACP can be found at <http://www.a4cp.org>. CP 2008 included two calls for contributions: a call for research papers describing novel contributions in the field and a call for application papers describing applications of constraint technology. For the first time authors could directly submit short papers for consideration by the committee. The research track received 84 long submissions and 21 short submissions and the application track received 15 long submissions. Each paper received at least three reviews which the authors had the opportunity to see and to react to before the papers and their reviews were discussed extensively by the members of the Program Committee.

Law and Intersystemic Communication Assoc Prof Gorm Harste, Professor Alberto Febbrajo, 2013-04-28 With contributions from experts in the field of sociology of law this book provides an overview of current perspectives on socio-legal studies. It focuses particularly on the relationship between law and society described in recent social systems theory as structural coupling. The first part of the book presents a reconstruction of theoretical tendencies in the field of socio-legal studies characterised by the emergence of a transnational model of legal systems no longer connected to territorial borders and culturally specific aspects of single legal orders. In the following parts of the book the contributions analyse some concrete cases of interrelation between law and society from an empirical and theoretical perspective.
