Conservative Philanthropies and Organizations Shaping U.S. Educational Policy and Practice Kathleen deMarrais, Brigitte A. Herron, Janie Copple, 2020-09-10 American public education has been under assault for the last few decades as a broken system that needs a complete overhaul In large part these opinions are offered by people and organizations who know little about schools But who are these influencers This book is about conservative philanthropies the organizations and individuals within their networks and the strategies they use to shape educational policy and practice in K 12 and higher education Each chapter examines a philanthropy philanthropic network or corporation focused on pushing an agenda of individualism privatization and conservative ideologies Based in extensive research including the tax filings of specific philanthropic foundations the authors demonstrate how the philanthropic elite work within federal state and local governmental contexts to influence policy and practice Within a global context of increasing wealth inequality the authors question the motivations of these privileged few to withhold tax dollars from the US treasury where duly elected representatives can determine how tax dollars are used to benefit society By allowing these philanthropic organizations tax exemptions under the guise of assumed benevolence are citizens giving up their ability to hold these organizations accountable for how the money is spent This book aimed at a general audience of educators provides the in depth knowledge necessary to understand and resist private control of public policies and institutions Moody's Manual of Investments John Sherman Porter,1962 American government securities 1928 53 in 5 annual vols v 1 Railroad securities 1952 53 Transportation v 2 Industrial securities v 3 Public utility securities v 4 Government securities 1928 54 v 5 Banks insurance companies investment trusts real estate finance and credit companies 1928 54 Legislative Calendar United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Environment and Public Works,2013 Sheets of Scattered Sand Justin K.H. Tse,2024-11-15 Justin K H Tse captures the voices of Cantonese Protestant Christians from the San Francisco Vancouver and Hong Kong metropolitan areas as they reflect on their efforts to adapt to secular communities while retaining their identity and beliefs In the context of the transpacific region between Asia and the Americas the Pacific Rim refers to a window of time in which predominant narratives emphasized skilled migration and the rise of multicultural societies the era before the rise of Chinese nationalism in 2012 and the Hong Kong protests Diasporic Cantonese Protestant Christians of this time were frequently portrayed as a homogenous people bringing their Chinese culture and Christian communities from Hong Kong to cities such as Vancouver and San Francisco sometimes contesting liberal developments like same sex marriage but also offering new democratic awareness Sheets of Scattered Sand challenges that depiction of Cantonese Protestants with authentic voices from the community Based on research done in the San Francisco Bay area Vancouver and Hong Kong author Justin K H Tse finds that Cantonese Protestants consider themselves sheets of scattered sand politically disparate and ideologically fragmented but united in a sense of tension with the secular world Tse s work serves as an illuminating prequel to contemporary stories of the Hong Kong protests and a newly emergent Asian American politics underscoring the importance of incorporating these voices in wider reflections on Christianity and secularity Critical, Transdisciplinary and Embodied Approaches in STEM Education Pratim Sengupta,Marie-Claire Shanahan,Beaumie Kim,2019-12-16 Over the past decade integrated STEM education research has emerged as an international concern creating around it an imperative for technological and disciplinary innovation and a global resurgence of interest in teaching and learning to code at the K 16 levels At the same time issues of democratization equity power and access including recent decolonizing efforts in public education are also beginning to be acknowledged as legitimate issues in STEM education Taking a reflexive approach to the intersection of these concerns this book presents a collection of papers making new theoretical advances addressing two broad themes Transdisciplinary Approaches in STEM Education and Bodies Hegemony and Decolonization in STEM Education Within each theme praxis is of central concern including analyses of teaching and learning that re imagines disciplinary boundaries and domains the relationship between Art and STEM and the design of learning technologies spaces and environments In addition to graduate research seminars at the Masters and PhD levels in Learning Sciences Science

The Rotarian: July 2014 , The Fractured College Prep Pipeline Heather E. Price,2021 This book walks readers through the stages of the high school college prep pipeline that introduces interlocked structural barriers to students The author shows how these barriers reinforce segregated structures that unfairly distribute the public good of education to some students and not others Price argues that the college prep pipeline of Advanced Placement and International Baccalaureate coursework in American high schools constitutes a new form of tracking in the 21st century Even further this new tracking introduces a facade of college readiness that veils the unequal learning opportunities that send some students out into the college world with pockets full of counterfeit credentials that serve only to reinforce the historically oppressive system Whether intentional or not this new form of tracking is embedded in schools across the United States and have lifetime consequences for individual students that reinforce historically racial ethnic and spatial inequalities This book is a rigorous and engaging portrait of the architecture of opportunity in American schools With a fine grained analysis that never loses sight of the big picture Heather Price reveals structural realities of college readiness in the United States that are ripe for change Sean Kelly University of Pittsburgh

Designed to Fail Roseann Liu,2024-03-20 A provocative examination of how systemic racism in education funding is sustained For people who care about urban school districts like Philadelphia s addressing the challenges that these schools face often boils down to the need for more money But why are urban districts that serve Black and Brown students still so perennially underfunded compared to majority white ones Why is racial equity in school funding so hard to achieve In Designed to Fail Roseann Liu provides an inside look at the Pennsylvania state legislature and campaigns for fair funding to show how those responsible for the distribution of school funding work to maintain the privileges of majority white school districts Liu analyzes how colorblind policies political structures and the maintenance of the status quo by people in power perpetuate wide and deepening racial disparities in education funding Taking a lesson from community organizers fighting for a racially equitable school funding system Liu s work is a bold call to address structural racism at the root and organize from a place of abundant justice
