Language Across the Curriculum & CLIL in English as an Additional Language (EAL) Contexts Angel M.Y. Lin, 2016-09-15 This book will be of interest to a broad readership regardless of whether they have a background in sociolinguistics functional linguistics or genre theories It presents an accessible meta language i e a language for talking about language that is workable and usable for teachers and researchers from both language and content backgrounds thus facilitating collaboration across content and language subject panels Chapters 1 to 3 lay the theoretical foundation of this common meta language by critically reviewing systematically presenting and integrating key theoretical resources for teachers and researchers in this field In turn Chapters 4 to 7 focus on issues in pedagogy and assessment and on school based approaches to LAC and CLIL drawing on both research studies and the experiences of front line teachers and school administrators Chapter 8 provides a critical and reflexive angle on the field by asking difficult questions regarding how LAC and CLIL are often situated in contexts characterized by inequality of access to the linguistic and cultural capitals where the local languages of the students are usually neglected or viewed unfavourably in relation to the L2 in mainstream society and where teachers are usually positioned as recipients of knowledge rather than makers of knowledge In closing Chapter 9 reviews the state of the art in the field and proposes directions for future inquiry

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events

Indigenous Rights and Water Resource Management Katie O'Bryan, 2018-10-26 In an era of climate change the need to manage our water resources effectively for future generations has become an increasingly significant challenge Indigenous management practices have been successfully used to manage inland water systems around the world for thousands of years and Indigenous people have been calling for a greater role in the management of water resources As First Peoples and as holders of important knowledge of sustainable water management practices they regard themselves as custodians and rights holders deserving of a meaningful role in decision making This book argues that a key albeit not the only means of ensuring appropriate participation in decision making about water management is for such participation to be legislatively mandated To this end the book draws on case studies in Australia and New Zealand in order to elaborate the legislative tools necessary to ensure Indigenous participation consultation and representation in the water management landscape

Standards-Based Learning in Action Tom Schimmer, Garnet Hillman, Mandy Stalets, 2018-01-31 Get past the knowing doing gap and confidently implement standards based learning This book offers a comprehensive look at what standards based learning looks like in action from creating formative assessments to using data to inform instruction to transitioning to standards based grading systems Instead of comparing students to each other standards based learning compares students proficiency to performance standards and education targets Each chapter offers readers a well thought out action plan for implementation and effective strategies for communicating with students and parents about the classroom changes that will occur during the transition Use this book as your action plan for implementing standards based learning Explore concrete steps for putting standards based grading instruction and learning into action Implement schoolwide change beginning with classroom practices Address common implementation mistakes and challenges Effectively sequence units and align them with unpacked standards Create effective proficiency level scales and rubrics Contents Introduction Chapter 1 Standards Based Learning in Action Chapter 2 Standards Alignment in Action Chapter 3 Formative Assessment in Action Chapter 4 Effective Feedback in Action Chapter 5 Meaningful Homework in Action Chapter 6 Self and Peer Assessment in Action Chapter 7 Summative Assessment in Action Chapter 8 Redos Retakes and Reassessment in Action Chapter 9 Proficiency Scales and Rubrics in Action Chapter 10 Standards Based Reporting in Action Epilogue References and Resources Index      Educational Reform and International Baccalaureate in the Asia-Pacific Coulson, David Gregory,Datta, Shammi,Davies, Michael James,2021-02-19 The need to reform secondary level education to prepare young people for new economic realities has emerged In an age of constant career changing cognitive flexibility is a top priority skill to develop in today s students This shift requires methodological innovation that enhances children s natural abilities as well as updated focused teacher education in order to prepare them adequately Educational Reform and International Baccalaureate in the Asia Pacific is a collection of innovative research that examines the development and implementation of IB curricula Highlighting a wide range of topics including critical thinking student evaluation and teacher training this book is ideally designed for educators curriculum developers instructional designers administrative officials policymakers researchers academicians and students      The Official Index to The Times ,1915      Indigenous Social Security Systems in Southern and West Africa Ndangwa Noyoo,Emmanuel Boon,2018-08-14 The desire exists within Governments to provide for those who are on the fringes of society Therefore indigenous approaches seem relevant in the redistribution of resources among citizens This book is therefore not only essential but also timely Indigenous Social Security Systems in Southern and West Africa ISSS contributes to human service literature for Africa Southern Africa and West Africa in particular The richness of the book lies within the variety of contributions that encourage its origin The book s value is extensive and captures many essential and current topics that have an appeal to academicians policy makers analysts and practitioners in the field of social welfare and social security Ultimately the book serves as a pragmatic and expedient tool for human service practitioners and any enthusiast of social security systems      Slices & Lumps Lee Anne Fennell,2019-09-16 How things are divided up or pieced together matters Half a bridge is of no use at all Conversely many things would do more good if they could be divided up differently Perhaps you would prefer a job that involves a third less work and a third less pay or a car that materializes only when needed and is priced accordingly Difficulties in slicing and lumping shape nearly every facet of how we live and work and a great deal of law and policy as well Lee Anne Fennell explores how both types of challenges carving out useful slices and assembling useful lumps surface in myriad contexts from hot button issues like conservation and eminent domain to developments in the sharing economy to personal struggles over work money time diet and exercise Yet the significance of configuration is often overlooked leading to missed opportunities for improving our lives With a technology fueled entrepreneurial explosion underway that is dividing goods services and jobs in novel ways and as urbanization and environmental threats raise the stakes for assembling resources and cooperation this is an especially exciting and crucial time to confront questions of slicing and lumping The future of the city the workplace the marketplace and the environment all turn on matters of configuration as do the prospects for more effective legal doctrines for better management of finances and health and more This book reveals configuration s power and potential as a unifying concept and as a focus of public and private innovation

Whole School Approaches to Sustainability Arjen E.J. Wals, Birgitte Bjønness, Astrid Sinnes, Ingrid Eikeland, 2024-06-22 In response to urgent global sustainability challenges Education for Sustainable Development ESD and Global Citizenship Education have been prioritized in the United Nations Agenda 2030 under SDG 4 7 There is a growing awareness that treating concepts such as global citizenship sustainable development climate urgency and health and well being as separate subjects or topics to be added to a curriculum is ineffective as they are highly interconnected Additionally this approach is problematic as schools already have an overcrowded curriculum This edited volume brings together a range of scholars and reflective practitioners from across the globe who are investigating and enacting a whole school approach WSA in education for sustainability While the WSA and related approaches such as those advocated by EcoSchools are becoming more popular there is a lack of understanding of their underlying principles and the different manifestations in diverging socio cultural contexts at different educational levels This collection of chapters provides a deeper understanding of the WSA while also addressing its effectiveness possibilities for upscaling professional development needs for WSA practitioners interlinkages with more conventional curriculum requirements expectations of students and parents and more This is an open access book

Advancing Language Research through Q Methodology Nicola Fraschini, Adrian Lundberg, Renata Aliani, 2024-07-16 This volume investigates the ways in which Q methodology can uncover and foreground new perspectives and contribute to language education and language policy research It demonstrates the flexibility of this research methodology in addressing dynamic and complex language issues across a variety of educational topics and geographical contexts The chapter authors use Q methodology to explore topics such as identity motivation cognition emotion pre service and in service teacher beliefs and to evaluate language programmes curricula and policies These contributions highlight Q methodology s potential to inform theoretical developments by revealing fresh perspectives on contemporary issues and generating new hypotheses They foster further Q methodology research demonstrating how it can contribute to a science of subjectivity and allow researchers to value the perspectives of all stakeholders for more inclusive research This book will be of interest to graduate students and researchers in language education and language policy research and those in the broader field of social sciences looking to expand their knowledge of the methodology and how it can be used to study contemporary dynamic and complex issues Palmer's index to the Times newspaper, 1916 O-level English Critical Guide (Yellowreef) Thomas Bond, Chris Hughes, 2013-11-18 in depth explanation of key concepts critical for exam preparations holistic question answering techniques exact definitions complete edition and concise edition eBooks available Disability Studies Tim Corcoran, Julie White, Ben Whitburn, 2015-07-22 Education systems worldwide will only successfully serve the needs of people with disability when we inclusively examine and address disabling issues that currently exist at school level education as well as further and higher education and beyond The chapters contributing to this edited volume are presented to assist readers with a critical examination of contemporary practice and offer a concerted response to improving inclusive education The chapters address a range of important topics related to the field of critical disability studies in education and include sections dedicated to Schools Higher Education Family and Community and Theorising The contributors entered into discussions during the 2014 AERA Special Interest Group annual meeting hosted by Victoria University in Australia The perspectives offered here include academic practitioner student and parent with contributions from Australia New Zealand Nigeria the UK and the US providing transnational interest This book will appeal to readers who are interested in innovative theoretical approaches practical applications and personal narratives The book is accessible for scholars and students in disciplines including education sociology psychology social work youth studies as well as public and allied health The Introduction by Professor Roger Slee The Victoria Institute Victoria University Australia and Afterword by Professor David Connor City University of New York provide insightful and important commentary Cover photograph by Paul Dunn and design by Hendrik Jacobs

Prospects for Regional Integration in Africa Andreas Freytag, Abena D. Oduro, African integration has had a long history dating back to the end of colonization in the 1960s It has generated enormous interest in recent years not least because the continent has recently taken some bold steps to integrate further such as the Tripartite Free Trade Area or the creation of the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA With this book we offer an innovative perspective on African integration By inviting mostly young African scholars from different disciplines in the social sciences and humanities we make African voices audible and start a discussion of the African integration efforts from an African perspective using novel criteria to judge different African integration attempts In addition to the younger generation s representatives we also invited scholars from Europe and Latin America to bring other continents perspectives to the fore Intellectual Property Rights and ASEAN Development in the Digital Age Lurong Chen, Fukunari Kimura, 2021-11-17 The trade investment service intellectual property IP nexus remains at the heart of economic development and the main features of which are global value chains GVCs and digitalisation The protection of intellectual property rights IPR has become a critical issue not only for advanced economies but also for emerging markets This edited volume contributes to the debates on IPR protection and economic development from the perspective of Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN member states The book provides insights into the mechanism and evidence on how effective IPR protection will increase economic and social welfare via promoting innovation activities and providing incentives to diffuse knowledge and transfer technologies Written by economists and lawyers from the region these experts share their latest findings and thoughts on how countries in Southeast Asia have been progressively improving IPR protection and increasing the interoperability of different IPR regimes through regional cooperation to facilitate business operations in the context of digital transformation

Governance and Governmentality for Projects Ralf Muller, 2016-09-01 This research based book takes an organization wide perspective to describe the governance and governmentality for projects in organizations Governance of projects defines and directs the ways managers of projects programs and project portfolios carry out their work Governmentality is the way the managers of these managers present themselves to those they lead Governance and Governmentality for Projects starts with introducing existing theories models and paradigms for governance and governmentality It then develops a chronological framework of the ways governance and governmentality for projects is enabled in organizations how it subsequently unfolds in organizations of different types and sectors and the consequences of different governance approaches for project results trust control and ethical issues in projects Special emphasis is given to the link between corporate governance and the governance of project programs and project portfolios Three real life case studies exemplify the research findings described in the book Through its structure this book describes the development of governance and governmentality in the realm of projects from its organizational origins via observable practices to expected consequences of different implementations Aimed at academics post graduate students in business and management reflective practitioners standards or policy developers those in governance roles and others in need of a detailed knowledge of the spectrum of project related governance in organizations this book will help develop a comprehensive understanding of the theoretical and practical underpinnings of the subject their interaction and implications for implementation This allows for understanding and developing of both generic and idiosyncratic governance structures such as those needed in project based organizations

The International Handbook of Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves, Ryo Watanabe, 2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region
