Korean "Comfort Women" Pyong Gap Min, 2021-03-26 Arguably

the most brutal crime committed by the Japanese military during the Asia Pacific war was the forced mobilization of 50 000 to 200 000 Asian women to military brothels to sexually serve Japanese soldiers The majority of these women died unable to survive the ordeal Those survivors who came back home kept silent about their brutal experiences for about fifty years In the late 1980s the women s movement in South Korea helped start the redress movement for the victims encouraging many survivors to come forward to tell what happened to them With these testimonies the redress movement gained strong support from the UN the United States and other Western countries Korean Comfort Women synthesizes the previous major findings about Japanese military sexual slavery and legal recommendations and provides new findings about the issues comfort women faced for an English language audience It also examines the transnational redress movement revealing that the Japanese government has tried to conceal the crime of sexual slavery and to resolve the women s human rights issue with diplomacy and economic power The New Domestic Automakers in the United States and Canada A.J. Jacobs, 2015-12-16

Over the past forty years state provincial and local governments in the United States and Canada have provided foreign automakers with approximately 4 80 billion in incentives in order to lure light vehicles assembly plants to their areas This has included tax abatements infrastructure construction land giveaways job training programs and other subsidies As of early 2015 ten foreign vehicle makers operated 20 light vehicles in developed North America Despite the fact that all ten of these automakers have pursued a similar pattern first exporting vehicles into the United States and Canada before launching vehicle plants in developed North America each has followed its own specific historical development path and has created its own unique growth trajectory This book provides a unique historical and qualitative review of these ten vehicle makers from their early beginnings to their export entry into the United States and or Canada through early 2015 In addition it chronicles the histories of more than a dozen former automakers and potential future foreign light motor vehicle assembly plants in the United States and Canada This includes the first foreign automaker to build its cars in the United States De Dion Bouton of France in July 1900 the early 20th Century endeavors of Fiat Mercedes and Rolls Royce and the present day hopes of Chinese and Indian automakers In the process the text also provides an assessment of the top competing states and sites for any future plants the possible incentives packages governments may offer to attract such facilities and an estimated incentive value for each automaker Overall the goal of this book is to expand the knowledge of policymakers at all tiers of government in the United States and Canada and to help them take a more holistic look at the pros and cons of attracting Automobile Manufacturing FDI It is hoped that this will enable them to make more informed decisions when pursuing a new foreign motor vehicle assembly plant Its findings should also prove informative to urban and regional planning political science sociology economics labor and international development scholars and students in North America and worldwide

European Intellectual Property Law Justine Pila, Paul Torremans, 2016 European Intellectual Property Law offers a full account of the main areas of substantive European IP law and a discussion of their wider context and effect The amount and reach of European law and decision making in the field of intellectual property has grown exponentially since the 1960 s making it increasingly difficult to treat European law as an adjunct to domestic intellectual property regimes European Intellectual Property Law responds to this reality by presenting a clear and detailed account of each of the main areas of substantive EU intellectual property law situated in the context of both the EU legal system and international IP law including EU constitutional law the law of the European Patent Convention 1973 2000 and private international law It draws selectively on examples from domestic IP regimes to illustrate substantive differences between those regimes and to demonstrate the impact of European law and decision making on EU Member States This unique thoroughly modern approach goes beyond a discussion of the provisions of European legal instruments to consider their wider context and effect European Intellectual Property Law is the ideal guide for any student wishing to gain a full and critical understanding of the substantive European law of intellectual property Staging Fashion Tiziana Ferrero-Regis, Marissa Lindquist, 2020-12-10

The fashion show and its spaces are sites of otherness representing everything from rebellion and excess through to political and social activism This conceptual and stylistic variety is reflected in the spaces they occupy whether they are staged in an industrial warehouse on a city street or out in the open landscape Staging Fashion is the first collection of essays about the presentation and staging of fashion in runway shows in the period from the 1960s to the 2010s It offers a fresh perspective on the many collaborations between artists architects and interior designers to reinforce their interdisciplinary links Fashion architecture and interiors share many elements including design history material culture aesthetics and trends The research and ideas underpinning Staging Fashion address how fashion and the spatial fields have collaborated in the creation of the space of the fashion show The 15 essays are written by fashion interior architecture and design scholars focusing on the presentation of fashion within the runway space from avant garde practices and collaboration with artists to the most spectacular and commercial shows of recent years from Prada to Chanel External Sector Report, July 2019

International Monetary Fund. Monetary and Capital Markets Department, 2019-07-17 The IMF s 2019 External Sector Report shows that global current account balances stand at about 3 percent of global GDP Of this about 35 45 percent are now deemed excessive Meanwhile net credit and debtor positions are at historical peaks and about four times larger than in the early 1990s Short term financing risks from the current configuration of external imbalances are generally contained as debtor positions are concentrated in reserve currency issuing advanced economies An intensification of trade tensions or a disorderly Brexit outcome with further repercussions for global growth and risk aversion could however affect other economies that are highly dependent on foreign demand and external financing With output near potential in most systemic economies a well calibrated macroeconomic and structural policy mix is necessary to support rebalancing Recent trade policy actions are weighing on global trade flows investment and growth including through confidence effects and the disruption of global supply chains with no discernible impact on external imbalances thus far Fog/Edge Computing For Security,
