25 years of Father Ted

It is 25 years since the TV comedy series Father Ted first appeared on our screens and to mark this very popular series An Post have brought out a booklet of 4 Father Ted stamps. Printed on each stamp is a famous one-liner from each of the show's main characters including Mrs. Doyle's "Will you have a cup of tea father..." and Dougal's "That's mad, Ted...".

Head of marketing with An Post Julie Gill said "We are creating a laugh out loud moment with these colourful stamps, while marking 25 years of Father Ted and remembering those members of the cast and crew who are no longer with us. Right now, the power of fun and of laughter is to be celebrated."

The show is as popular today as it was 25 years ago and regular repeats of the series mean the characters, Ted, Dougal, Father Jack and the ever-popular Mrs. Doyle, are as well known today as they were in 1995. It's hard to believe that there were only 25 episodes made in total.

The comedy series followed the everyday events in the lives of 3 priests and their housekeeper living in a rundown house on an island, known as "Craggy Island".

Although all the studio scenes were filmed in England, the outdoor scenes were filmed in County Clare and on the Aran Islands. The house is still a very popular tourist attraction with visitors to Co. Clare.

At the time, some of the story lines and the language used especially by the colourful Father Jack, offended some people. However, some of the funny lines and events from the programme have become part of our everyday language, with people often calling funny events that happen, a "Father Ted moment".

Many of today's well-known actors and comedians started their career with small parts on Father Ted. Graham Norton for example first came to fame as the entertaining Father Furlong.

In 1998, just weeks after filming the very last episode of the series, the main actor, Dermot Morgan who played the part of Father Ted, died suddenly from a heart attack. He was only 45. Irish actor Frank Kelly who played Father Jack has also since passed away.

Pauline McGlynn who played the part of Mrs. Doyle, says that she takes it as a great compliment that people still remember her as Mrs. Doyle and hopes that the new stamps will make people smile.
