International Perspectives on Teachers Living with Curriculum Change Martin Wedell,Laura Grassick,2017-11-10 This book gives a voice to English language teachers faced with the challenges posed by English language curriculum change As a core component of national state system curricula in virtually every country in the world there has nevertheless been little research exploring how the millions of English teachers worldwide navigate the challenges posed by such curriculum changes This volume includes eleven stories from teachers based across every continent providing a global glimpse of how national English curriculum change projects have been experienced by classroom teachers who are commonly if erroneously viewed as mostly responsible for its implementation success or failure The final chapter synthesises these experiences and suggests wider implications for the development of curriculum change planning processes and how they might better support teachers attempts to achieve curriculum goals Edited and authored by leading experts in the field this ground breaking collection will be of interest to students and scholars of English language teaching teacher education curriculum change and education policy Play Like a Girl Ellie Roscher,2017-07-18 Growing up and living in Kibera Kenya Abdul Kassim was well aware of the disproportionate number of challenges faced by women due to the extreme gender inequalities that persist in the slums After being raised by his aunts mother and grandmother and having a daughter himself he felt that he needed to make a difference In 2002 Abdul started a soccer team for girls called Girls Soccer in Kibera GSK with the hope of fostering a supportive community and providing emotional and mental support for the young women in the town The soccer program was a success but the looming dangers of slum life persisted and the young women continued to fall victim to the worst kinds of human atrocities Indeed it was the unyielding injustice of these conditions that led Abdul to the conclusion that soccer alone was not enough to create the necessary systemic change In 2006 after much work the Kibera Girls Soccer Academy KGSA was established with their first class of 11 girls and 2 volunteer teachers Today KGSA is composed of 20 full time staff provides a host of artistic and athletic programs for more than 130 students annually and continues to expand By providing academics inside and outside of the classroom along with artistic and athletic opportunities KGSA inspires the young women of Kibera to become advocates for change within their own communities and for Kenya as a whole Play Like a Girl tells the KGSA story through Abdul s voice and vision and the stories of key staff and students It is written by Ellie Roscher who spent 2 summers doing research at KGSA and several years writing this book Annual Report and Accounts Kenya

Anti-Corruption Commission,2005 Deaf Education Beyond the Western World Harry Knoors,Maria Brons,Marc Marschark,2019-01-16 If teachers want to educate deaf learners effectively they have to apply evidence informed methods and didactics with the needs of individual deaf students in mind Education in general and education for deaf learners in particular is situated in broader societal contexts where what works within the Western world may be quite different from what works beyond the Western world By exploring practice based and research based evidence about deaf education in countries that largely have been left out of the international discussion thus far this volume encourages more researchers in more countries to continue investigating the learning environment of deaf learners based on the premise of leaving no one behind Featuring chapters centering on 19 countries from Africa Asia Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe the volume offers a picture of deaf education from the perspectives of local scholars and teachers who demonstrate best practices and challenges within their respective regional contexts This volume addresses the notion of learning through the exchange of knowledge outlines the commonalities and differences between practices and policies in educating deaf and hard of hearing learners and looks ahead to the prospects for the future development of deaf education research in the context of recently adopted international legal frameworks Stimulating academic exchange regionally and globally among scholars and teachers who are fascinated by and invested in deaf education this volume strengthens the foundation for further improvement of education for deaf children all around the world Handbook of Literacy in Africa R. Malatesha Joshi,Catherine A. McBride,Bestern Kaani,Gad Elbeheri,2023-07-28 This volume highlights the shortcomings concerning literacy development in Africa and collates the current available literature based on empirical research in various countries in a coherent manner Further emphasized is how the current research can guide practical information to improve the literacy situation in Africa The research studies will encompass various fields such as linguistics neurosciences and education and will provide future research directions and instructional recommendations to improve the literacy situation in Africa

Catalogue ,1992 Canonicity, Postcoloniality, and Power James Nyachae Michira,2007 Education and the Law Gerald Stowbridge,Witold Tulasiewicz,2003-09-02 This edited collection addresses a subject which is topical not only in Britain where there has been a spate of laws and regulations affecting the structure and content of education but also in developed and developing countries where the overriding motivation in many cases has been to raise economic performance The first part of the book deals with the way legislation affects education and training both directly and tangentially and how the law through its influence on such things as participation rates certification and employer involvement can affect the level and degree of economic activity Contributors examine the education systems of the USA Kenya Japan Germany Nigeria Britain and France to illustrate the interdependence of the elements involved The second part focuses on the concept of curriculum control Chapters take a comparative approach to what is taught in the classroom and how the implementation of legislation affects all aspects of a country s education system
