Josep Soler, Kathrin Kaufhold

All Kcse Papers From 2021:

The Education Alibi Elizabeth Cooper, Erdmute Alber, Wandia Njoya, 2025-10-22 Education is generally promoted as the key to the future of Africa in global development discourses about the continent Education's official story in Africa continues to be one of innocence and public good yet since colonial times education has constituted an area of intense contestation The Education Alibi asks if it is possible that while claiming to be doing one thing education has also been doing another in African communities The concept of the alibi shines an interrogative light on institutions and actors use of education to divert scrutiny from other effects Through ethnographic research and critical analysis across the continent this volume focuses on people's lived experiences to demonstrate how contemporary education systems in fact deepen economic racialized gendered urban rural linguistic religious and other intranational and international inequalities Language and the Knowledge

Economy Josep Soler, Kathrin Kaufhold, 2025-02-28 This volume offers a holistic understanding of the interconnections of language specifically English scholarly publishing and knowledge production and circulation through a sociolinguistic lens in contemporary academia across different European settings for research purposes The volume is organised around three parts the first part explores individual factors underpinning knowledge production and their role in shaping scholars academic careers the second part critically reflects on the challenges and opportunities for multilingual scholars in the academic landscape examining the inherent tensions in the interactions between English and other languages the final part considers the ways in which academic knowledge is institutionalised at universities private companies and on a national scale and the subsequent impact on knowledge dissemination Taken together the chapters provide a coherent and holistic overview of the affordances and limitations that different social actors experience when participating in such cycles including the different modes of access to resources across geographic contexts and disciplinary traditions An important contribution of the volume is the multilayered angle that it incorporates into analysing issues of scholarly publishing in today's academia placing language as a social practice at the heart of the structuring processes that condition the creation dissemination and consumption of knowledge in contemporary societies This book will be of interest to scholars in English for research and publication purposes sociolinguistics language and education and applied linguistics Queer lawfare in Africa: Legal strategies in contexts of LGBTIQ+ criminalisation and politicisation Adrian Jjuuko, Siri Gloppen, Alan Msosa, Frans Viljoen, 2022-11-21 About the publication This book focuses on the strategies that activists for LGBTIQ equality in Africa deploy to challenge deep seated homophobia and transphobia as well as the politicisation of LGBTIQ issues It is a peer reviewed edited volume with scholarly contributions from lawyers anthropologists and LGBTIQ activists It covers different country situations those where equality is taking root as the case is in South Africa Botswana and Mozambique those where homophobia reigns and LGBTIQ rights are politicised such as Ghana Kenya Malawi Nigeria Senegal Uganda and Zambia and those where traditional LGBTIQ activism is almost a nonstarter such as in Ethiopia Sudan and The Gambia Table of Contents

The Predatory Paradox Amy Koerber, Jesse C. Starkey, Karin Ardon-Dryer, R. Glenn Cummins, Lyombe Eko, Kerk F. Kee, 2023-10-24 In today's publish or perish academic setting the institutional prizing of quantity over quality has given rise to and perpetuated the dilemma of predatory publishing Upon a close examination however the definition of predatory itself becomes slippery evading neat boxes or lists which might seek to easily define and guard against it This volume serves to foreground a nuanced representation of this multifaceted issue In such a rapidly evolving landscape this book becomes a field guide to its historical political and economic aspects presenting thoughtful interviews legal analysis and original research Case studies from both European American and non European American stakeholders emphasize the worldwide nature of the challenge faced by researchers of all levels This coauthored book is structured into both textual and supplemental materials Key takeaways discussion questions and complete classroom activities accompanying each chapter provide opportunities for engagement and real world applications of these concepts Crucially relevant to early career researchers and the senior faculty library scholars and administrators who mentor and support them The Predatory Paradox Ethics Politics and Practices in Contemporary Scholarly Publishing offers practical recommendations for navigating the complex and often contradictory advice currently available University instructors and teaching faculty will also find the reading essential in order to properly prepare both graduate and undergraduate students for the potential pitfalls endemic to scholarly publishing

Education in Comparative Perspective Bradshaw, 2021-11-01 The 9 articles in this volume look at a variety of educational issues around the world and examine what they say about current theories Papers discuss critical substantive issues such as the role of the state in the educational process the importance of female education in the development process the influence of a distinctive Asian model of education on the Asian economic miracle and vocational training systems All papers relate substantive processes to theory in some way and are explicitly comparative either by relating at least two countries or by making broader points in the fields of education and sociology Together they cover topics and cases throughout different regions of the world including Africa Asia Latin America and Europe as well as the United States Reading Peer Review
