Verbatim Theatre Methodologies for Community Engaged Practice Sarah Peters, David

Burton, 2023-08-01 Verbatim Theatre Methodologies for Community Engaged Practice offers a framework for developing original community engaged productions using a range of verbatim theatre approaches. This book's methodologies offer an approach to community engaged productions that fosters collaborative artistry, ethically nuanced practice, and social intentionality. Through research-based discussion, case study analysis, and exercises, it provides a historical context for verbatim theatre, outlines the ethics and methods for community immersion that form the foundation of community engaged best practice, explores the value of interviews and how to go about them, provides clear pathways for translating gathered data into an artistic product, and offers rehearsal room strategies for playwrights, producers, directors, and actors in managing the specific context of the verbatim theatre form. Based on diverse real-world practice that spans regional, metropolitan, large-scale, micro, independent, commercial, and curriculum-based work, this is a practical and accessible guide for undergraduates, artists, and researchers alike.

Breaking into TV Writing Anton Schettini, 2024-09-03

The old screenwriting motto is "Work on your script and the jobs will come." This is false. A great script is only as good as the effort you put into your career, but there is little information for the aspiring screenwriter about how to break in. Even those who study TV or film in college are taught to simply get a production assistant job. But then what? And how do you get that job to begin with? Breaking into TV Writing contains all the crucial information left out of most screenwriting books like How to get your first job in TV. What TV writing samples you need. How to break into the elusive TV writers room. How a writers room creates an episode of TV. Which assistant jobs are worth your time and which you should avoid at all costs. Anton Schettini provides a rare insider's glimpse of the modern-day network and streaming TV writers room. Here you will find practical advice, career path strategies, and first-hand accounts for how to establish your network, grow within it, and acquire the necessary tools to become a TV writer. The industry would love to tell you to put your head down, work hard, write a lot, and pay your dues. Schettini will show you why that hackneyed mantra is misleading and how you can put yourself in the best position to break through the barriers and see your work on the TV screen.
