comes home He tries to marry a local lord's daughter but Diana shows up and breaks up the engagement Helena appears and explains the ring swap announcing that she has fulfilled Bertram's challenge Bertram impressed by all she has done to win him swears his love to her Thus all ends well There is a subplot about Parolles a disloyal associate of Bertram's Some of the lords at the court attempt to get Bertram to know that his friend Parolles is a boasting coward as Lafew and the Countess have also said They convince Parolles to cross into enemy territory to fetch a drum that he left behind While on his way they pose as enemy soldiers kidnap him blindfold him and with Bertram observing get him to betray his friends and besmirch Bertram's character Bertram the son of a widowed countess sets off from Roussillon with his friend Parolles and the Lord Lafew to the French court He is the ward of the French king He is unaware that Helena orphan daughter of the countess physician raised in the household of the countess is in love with him The countess gives her permission to try and cure the king's illness No one has been able to cure him but Helena succeeds and as a reward the king invites her to choose a husband from among his wards She chooses Bertram Bertram's ambitions for a wife go beyond her however and although he marries her on the king's orders he runs away with Parolles to fight in the wars in Italy He writes a letter to Helena telling her that he will not recognise the marriage until she can demonstrate that she is wearing his heirloom ring and carrying his child
