

Childhood by Alice Walker

In Alice Walker's essay "Childhood" she tells her daughter about traditions. Traditions are defined as the handing down of statements, beliefs, legends, customs, information, etc. , from generation to generation, especially by word of mouth or by practice. Walker uses the harvest to tell the story of traditions, and how she learned the traditions. She was taught traditions by her family through their work habit. Her family worked on a farm when she was a child, and passed those traditions on to her. Walker uses potatoes as an example of the harvest. She asked her daughter if "she knew what potatoes looked like when they were dug out of the ground". Walker's daughter was unsure what the potatoes looked like, so Walker decided she would show her the next morning before heading back to the city. Her daughter thought that watching her mother dig the potatoes out of the ground was extraordinary. Then Walker started thinking of her childhood, and the enthusiasm that went along with what she is teaching her daughter. She says "When I think of childhood at its best, it is of this magic that I think". She then goes on to talk about how amazing her family was by saying "Of having a family that daily worked with nature to produce the extraordinary". She puts a lot of emphasis on the word "magic" and how being in the country is magical. I can relate with Walker when she says that the country is magical because I too am from the country. Being in the city I don't feel as free as I want to. In the country I am able to do more of what I want. In the country, everything is fresher, I can see the stars, and everyone around me is friendly. I think Walker wants to pass on the traditions that she learned from her family on to her daughter, so she can pass them on to her children.

Anniversary Edition Patricia Hill Collins, 2022-05-16 In the first major update to this classic book in many years Collins traces the history and contours of Black women's ideas and actions to argue that Black feminist thought is the discourse that fosters Black women's survival persistence and success against the odds Through meticulous research that synthesizes the important intellectual work done by Black women Collins's timely update demonstrates that Black women's ideas and actions are not marginal concerns but rather are central to the future of social justice within democratic societies The combination of the text's classic arguments and a preface and epilogue written expressly for this edition speak to people who have long been working on social justice and to a new generation of readers who are encountering the ideas and actions of Black women for the first time For this 30th year anniversary edition Patricia Hill Collins examines how the ideas in this classic text speak to contemporary social issues and identifies the directions needed for the future of Black feminist thought Alice Walker's Metaphysics Nagueyalti Warren, 2019-01-16 Catapulted to fame in 1982 with the publication of her third novel the Pulitzer Prize winning The Color Purple Alice Walker has become one of America's most celebrated and divisive authors With books such as Meridian and The Third Life of Grange Copeland Walker's writing has frequently been cited for messages in support of civil rights and feminism Above all however Walker is a spiritual seeker Her works are dominated by the search for truth wholeness and the spirit that connects everyone and everything In Alice Walker's Metaphysics: Literature of Spirit Nagueyalti Warren examines the philosophy and worldview present in all of Walker's writing Warren contends that Walker is a literary theologian citing the transformative changes that take place in the author's fictional characters Warren also points to Walker's bravery in approaching taboo subjects her generosity of spirit and her love for humanity which are represented throughout her poems novels short stories children's books and essays This analysis is further supplemented by primary sources from Walker's unpublished material including notes and scrapbooks By exploring the spirituality evident throughout the author's work this volume shows how Walker challenges readers to recognize and understand their responsibility to the earth and to one another Providing a fresh accessible look at one of the twentieth century's most prolific women writers Alice Walker's Metaphysics: Literature of Spirit will appeal to both academics and fans of the author's varied literature From Klein to Kristeva Janice Doane, Devon Hodges, 2025-10-01 Recent feminist and psychoanalytic accounts of mothering have been profoundly shaped by the work of Melanie Klein D W Winnicott Nancy Chodorow and Julia Kristeva Although their work spans many decades these writers share the goal of understanding object relations that is the child's relation to internalized objects most often the mother as the child's first caretaker Doane and Hodges chart the development of mother centered psychoanalysis and its influence on feminist thought in a number of fields and show how the effort to elevate the importance of the mother has become implicated in the current effort to restrict possibilities for women to opportunities associated with hearth and home The authors argue that discussions of the maternal role always exist within an ideological framework in which they are purveyed to particular groups at particular times In our own historical moment ideas of maternal propriety

have been vigorously argued as in custody battles where experts debate whether or not individual women are good enough mothers From Klein to Kristeva traces the ways in which object relations accounts of mothering have worked to encourage the view that good enough mothers find their whole self at home What does this view of mothering mean for working women How does it help promote arguments that fetal rights are more important than a mother's own desires By recovering the historical context of object relations theory and closely attending to the language of important theorists Doane and Hodges make visible the extraordinary influence of object relations on the discourses in many fields and demonstrate the power of psychological theory to shape both popular and academic discussions of maternal propriety Mothers in Children's and Young Adult Literature Lisa Rowe Fraustino, Karen Coats, 2016-05-05 Winner of the Children's Literature Association's 2018 Edited Book Award Contributions by Robin Calland Lauren Causey Karen Coats Sara K Day Lisa Rowe Fraustino Dorina K Lazo Gilmore Anna Katrina Gutierrez Adrienne Kertzer Kouen Kim Alexandra Kotanko Jennifer Mitchell Mary Jeanette Moran Julie Pfeiffer and Donelle Ruwe Living or dead present or absent sadly dysfunctional or merrily adequate the figure of the mother bears enormous freight across a child's emotional and intellectual life Given the vital role literary mothers play in books for young readers it is remarkable how little scholarly attention has been paid to the representation of mothers outside of fairy tales and beyond studies of gender stereotypes This collection of thirteen essays begins to fill a critical gap by bringing together a range of theoretical perspectives by a rich mix of senior scholars and new voices Following an introduction in which the coeditors describe key trends in interdisciplinary scholarship the book's first section focuses on the pedagogical roots of maternal influence in early children's literature The next section explores the shifting cultural perspectives and subjectivities of the twentieth century The third section examines the interplay of fantasy reality and the ethical dimensions of literary mothers The collection ends with readings of postfeminist motherhood from contemporary realism to dystopian fantasy The range of critical approaches in this volume will provide multiple inroads for scholars to investigate richer readings of mothers in children's and young adult literature Into being Lily Dunn, 2025-10-07 The acclaimed author of Sins of My Father shares the secrets of writing a new transformative kind of memoir Into being is an essential guide to writing radical and empowering memoir Drawing on her experience as a memoirist and a teacher of creative writing Lily Dunn presents the ground breaking idea that the craft of memoir itself can offer a form of transformation Dunn demystifies the memoirist's art helping readers to find meaning in raw experience and elevate the personal to the universal She considers compelling questions from why our memories give greater significance to certain events to how we can write honestly without intruding too far into the lives of our loved ones She also explores how writers are extending the memoir form to create something hybrid playful and subversive In an age of social media filled with confessions re-inventions and distortions of the self the question of what it means to be an individual is more urgent than ever Into being shows readers how to turn writing memoir into a journey of discovery one that can be shared with the whole
