Defend This Heart Christine DePetrillo,2025-04-24 Women were always walking away from me I needed to remember that I suck at relationships I never know what s going on in a woman s head Things seem as if they re progressing well and then poof She s breaking up with me when I m ready to take the next step It makes me keep my current girlfriend at arm s length and guess what She s noticed she's not happy and she's done with me. Fine. I'll just stick to caring for animals as a veterinarian at my family's wildlife rehabilitation center. Hartley's Nest. Animal emotions are much easier to decipher than human ones anyway. Avoiding relationships is a great plan until an unexpected delivery of an almost five-year-old girl who happens to look just like me shakes things up considerably. Yeah, I'm her dad. Yeah, I had no idea she existed. Yeah, I now have custody of her. Yeah, I don't know what I'm doing. I need help, and I need it fast. Especially when I lose my new daughter in a toy store. Luckily, angels do exist, and preschool teacher Carina Fiore comes to my rescue in too many ways to count. When she agrees to both nanny and teach my daughter, my life gets back on track. Only the track leads to human emotions. Lots of them. Because Carina is amazing. She hasn't had the best of luck in relationships either, however, and we make a pact to be totally honest with each other. It's wonderful to know exactly what's on her mind and to tell her what I'm thinking and feeling. When custody of my daughter is in jeopardy, Carina helps me believe in miracles. She also shows me that relationships are worth the risk. Now I'm ready for the next step. Is she?

Defend This Heart is a small-town contemporary single-dad nanny romance between a veterinarian and a preschool teacher. ParentPreneurs Jamie Ratner, Brian Ratner, 2022-08-21. This fun tale is entertaining and inspiring in equal measure. Publishers Weekly. Come along for the ride as Jamie and Brian Ratner show you how to build a successful business with your spouse. When Jamie Ratner pitched her new idea for a family-friendly Groupon to her husband Brian on their drive to Pittsburgh for the Christmas holiday in their messy minivan, Brian's response shocked her. He said, "That's a great idea." For the rest of their holiday while his parents watched their two young kids, they worked late into the night on a business plan and timeline to launch what soon would become CertifiKID. Jamie was an entrepreneur at heart but had no business background. Brian was a partner at a Washington, DC law firm whose practice was litigation, not corporate law. They had no free time. The timing to start a business was far from ideal. They did it anyway. More than a decade later, in ParentPreneurs, Jamie and Brian tell their rollercoaster story of how they built a multi-million-dollar company through thousands of deals with small and big businesses for the benefit of their million-plus members, cut a deal with Kevin O'Leary aka Mr. Wonderful on the ABC television show Shark Tank that was one of his biggest deals in 10 seasons, and navigated the Covid pandemic that sent their business to the edge of the cliff by making a risky pivot acquisition. They give an honest account from each of their own unique perspectives on the toll and rewards of mixing marriage and business at every stage. They provide tips and lessons for how to manage both, maintain work-life balance, especially in this age of remote and flexible work, and accomplish your personal and professional goals. This is a book for every entrepreneurial parent, whether you're in the game or just thinking about it. It is real and uplifting, and it will inspire you to rethink how you view your work and determine whether you can start or build something new that will bring you greater joy and fulfillment. Jamie and Brian show how parents can be successful entrepreneurs and entrepreneurs can be successful parents and spouses. And so can you.

A Uterus Is a Feature, Not a Bug Sarah Lacy, 2024-05-21 A rallying cry for working mothers everywhere that demolishes the distracted emotional weak stereotype and definitively shows that these professionals are more focused decisive and stronger than any other force Working mothers aren't a liability They are assets you and every manager and executive want in your company in your investment portfolio and in your corner There is copious academic research showing the benefits of working mothers on families and the benefits to companies who give women longer and more flexible parental leave There are even findings that demonstrate women with multiple children actually perform better at work than those with none or one Yet despite this concrete proof that working mothers are a lucrative asset they still face the Maternal Wall widespread unconscious bias about their abilities contributions and commitment Nearly eighty percent of women are less likely to be hired if they have children and are half as likely to be promoted Mothers earn an average 11 000 less in salary and are held to higher punctuality and performance standards Forty percent of Silicon Valley women said they felt the need to speak less about their family to be taken more seriously Many have been told that having a second child would cost them a promotion Fortunately this prejudice is slowly giving way to new attitudes thanks to more women starting their own businesses and companies like Netflix Facebook Apple and Google implementing more parent friendly policies But the most important barrier to change isn't about men. Women must rethink the way they see themselves after giving birth. As entrepreneur Sarah Lacy makes clear in this cogent persuasive analysis, and clarify the strongest, most lucrative and most ambitious time of a woman's career may easily be after she sees a plus sign on a pregnancy test.
