GRADE 10
MEMORANDUM

SECTION A: QUESTION 1 TEXT B (COMPREHENSION)

1.1 Two of the following: ✓✓

- 150 000 people are employed.
- It provides an income for informal collectors.
- It extends the lifespan of our landfills.

1.2 Accept a Yes or No answer/ a combination. The answer should be based on the visual. ✓✓

Yes, it is based on statistics supplied by Statistics SA.

OR

No, the visual was published in April 2019, the number can change daily/ It is impossible that exactly 150 000 people can be employed in this industry. (2)

1.3 Open answer. Award two marks for a well-substantiated answer regarding the recycling process for paper ✓✓. Suggested answer:

Yes, I recycle paper products myself. Informal collectors are very visible and collect paper products every day. Big companies have Sappi bins on their premises, reminding people to recycle. In our classroom there are recycling bins for paper. We also move to a paper-free environment, as many textbooks are now available electronically.

No, more can be done. There should be a law forcing every citizen to recycle paper. People discard empty containers very easily into an ordinary bin. When driving around town, many papers can be seen lying around. South Africa is far behind when compared to recycling processes in other countries. (2)

The English Historical Review Mandell Creighton, Justin Winsor, Samuel Rawson Gardiner, Reginald Lane Poole, Sir John Goronwy Edwards, 1920 Asia-Pacific Diplomacy Lawrence T. Woods, 2011-11-01 The emergence of Asia Pacific regionalism as witnessed by the increasing influence of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation forum and the annual ASEAN Post Ministerial Conference highlights one of the major trends in late twentieth century geopolitics and international relations Asia Pacific Diplomacy traces the evolution of the Pacific economic cooperation movement by examining the diplomatic contributions of three international nongovernmental organizations INGOs the scholarly Pacific Trade and Development Conference PAFTAD the business oriented Pacific Basin Economic Council PBEC and the multipartite academic business and government Pacific Economic Cooperation Council PECC Lawrence Woods also provides a historical perspective by assessing the work of the Institute of Pacific Relations forerunner of the INGOs This book makes an important contribution to the study of international political and economic institutions It argues that as the regional cooperation movement expands at the governmental level an understanding of the nongovernmental roots of that movement is required if the diplomatic contributions of the INGOs are to be retained Sovereign Debt Restructuring and the Law Sebastian Grund, 2022-12-30 The book sheds light on the perhaps most important legal conundrum in the context of sovereign debt restructuring the holdout creditor problem Absent an international bankruptcy regime for sovereigns holdout creditors may delay or even thwart the efficient resolution of sovereign debt crises by leveraging contractual provisions and in an increasing number of cases by seeking to enforce a debt claim against the sovereign in courts or international tribunals Following an introduction to sovereign debt and its restructuring the book provides the first comprehensive analysis of the holdout creditor problem in the context of the two largest sovereign debt restructuring operations in history the Argentine restructurings of 2005 and 2010 and the 2012 Greek private sector involvement By reviewing numerous lawsuits and arbitral proceedings initiated against Argentina and Greece across a dozen different jurisdictions it distills the organizing principles for ongoing and future cases of sovereign debt restructuring and litigation It highlights the different approaches judges and arbitrators have adopted when dealing with holdout creditors ranging from the denial of their contractual right to repayment on human rights grounds to leveraging the international financial infrastructure to coerce governments into meeting holdouts demands To this end it zooms in on the role the governing law plays in sovereign debt restructurings revisits the contemporary view on sovereign immunity from suit and enforcement in the international debt context and examines how creditor rights are balanced with the sovereign s interest in achieving debt sustainability Finally it advances a new genealogy of holdouts distinguishing between official and private sector holdouts and discussing how the proliferation of new types of uncooperative creditors may affect the sovereign debt architecture going forward While the book is aimed at practitioners and scholars dealing with sovereign debt and its restructuring it should also provide the general reader with the understanding of the key legal issues facing countries in debt distress Moreover by weaving economic financial and political considerations into its analysis of holdout creditor litigation and arbitration the book also speaks to policymakers without a legal background engaged in the field of international finance and economics Making Middle-Class Multiculturalism Jennifer Elrick,2022-01-10 Making Middle Class Multiculturalism re interprets the historiography of the emergence of Canada s universal immigration policy for skilled workers and family immigrants in the 1950s and 1960s Mews' Digest of English Case Law John Mews,1925 Report on Canadian Archives Douglas Brymner,Public Archives of Canada,1886 Report of the Work of the Public Archives ... Parliament,1907 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as vol 26 no 7 supplement Awakening to China's Rise Hugo Meijer,2022-08-01 Awakening to China s Rise provides the most comprehensive analysis to date of how Europe s major powers have responded to the re emergence of China as a great power in world politics since the end of the Cold War To do so it puts forward a unique cross regional comparison of how the major European powers France Germany and the United Kingdom have confronted Chinese assertiveness both in the Asia Pacific and in Europe Firstly it analyses their response to China s increasingly muscular regional posture in the Asia Pacific through the development of diplomatic and security initiatives with partners in the region Secondly it delineates how they have confronted China s inroads into Europe looking at the measures that they have taken to tackle Chinese investments in and supply of technologies in strategic sectors such as critical national infrastructures dual use technologies and in the digital domain including Huawei s 5G networks A longstanding assumption in the IR literature has been that European foreign policies toward the People s Republic of China have been driven by a na ve and self interested focus on the economic opportunities presented by such a vast market overlooking security considerations This book challenges such common belief through a detailed examination of the policies of France Germany and the United Kingdom from 1989 to the present Its central argument is that whereas this assessment aptly characterized the first two post Cold War decades Beijing s growing assertiveness after 2009 caused the three major European powers to awaken to China s rise In the 2010s heightened threat perceptions of China coupled with increasingly competitive bilateral economic relations with the PRC have gradually and cumulatively caused the hardening of their policy goals which in turn translated into the formulation of new policy instruments to confront such a challenge To substantiate this argument the book relies on a large body of previously undisclosed primary sources including 223 interviews conducted with senior officials in Europe Berlin Brussels London Paris in the United States Washington DC and in Asia Beijing Shanghai New Delhi Seoul declassified archival documents from France the UK and Germany leaked US diplomatic cables and new data on European naval deployments Calendar of House of Lords Manuscripts [1450-1678] Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1881 The Origins of the Vigilant State Bernard Porter,1991 The Special Branch of the London Metropolitan Police has been a hidden but important part of Britain s political life for a hundred years Opinions on its role have varied between those who saw it as protecting Britain from terrorism revolution or worse and those who regarded the Special Branch as a threat to Britain s civil liberties The truth has never been easy to establish mainly due to the obsessive secrecy of the Branch English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1923 The English-Speaking Alliance Ritchie Owendale,2024-11-01 As with appeasement myths and legends have proliferated about the origins of the Cold War It has often been treated as largely a European affair with the responses to the Russian threat being led by the Americans Before 1951 however the Cold War was almost global in scale extending across Europe and Asia penetrating the Middle East and Africa It was the British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin who was the principal architect of the Western alliance formed to counter the perceived menace Bevin organized Europe in preparation for the Marshall Plan initiated the Western Union and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization but his vision was wider Like Neville Chamberlain in the late 1930s Bevin outlined a plan for an English speaking defence alliance The French were defeatist and it was politically impossible to propose reliance on Germany for defence What was needed was a bond between Britain the United States and the old white Dominions First published in 1985 The English Speaking Alliance is the story of how the post war Labour governments sustained the image of Britain as a world power and laid the foundations of the West s Cold War foreign policy It is told from sources in the British American and Australian archives some of which have been used for the first time By laying bare the mechanics of the process of alliance building Ritchie Owendale offers many new insights which challenge the orthodox view of this crucial period of international politics As such it will appeal to anyone with an interest in world politics and a desire to know more about how the current superpower regime developed Law and the Arab-Israeli Conflict Steven E. Zipperstein,2020-02-18 During the British Mandate for Palestine 1922 1948 Arabs and Jews repeatedly used the law to gain leverage and influence international opinion especially in three dramatic and largely forgotten trials involving two issues the interplay between conflicting British promises to the Arabs and Jews during World War I and the parties rights and claims to the Wailing Wall Focusing on how all three parties Arab Jewish and British used the law and the legal process to advance their objectives during the Mandate years this volume reveals how the parties availed themselves with varying degrees of success of the law and the legal process The book examines various legal arguments they proffered and how that early tendency to resort to the law as a tool a resource and a weapon in the conflict has continued to this day The research relies almost entirely on primary source documents including transcripts of the public and secret testimony before the Shaw Lofgren and Peel Commissions diaries letters government files and other original sources This study explores the origins of many of the fundamental legal arguments in the Arab Israeli conflict that prevail to this day Filling a gap in research this is a key text for scholars and students interested in the Arab Israeli conflict Lawfare and the Middle East
