30 DAYS ON AUSTRALIA'S RAILWAYS DAVID. BURKE,2016 Women, travel and identity Emma

Robinson-Tomsett,2016-05-16 The years between 1870 and 1940 are often considered a golden age of travel as larger and evermore sumptuous ships and trains were built including the Orient Express Blue Train Lusitania and Normandie journeying abroad became and remains today synonymous with chic splendour and luxury Utilising women s diaries and letters art advertising fiction and etiquette guides this book considers the journey s impact upon understandings of female identity definitions of femininity modernity glamour class travel tourism leisure and sexual opportunity and threat during this period It explores women s relationship with train and ship technology cultural understandings of the journey public expectations of women journeyers how women journeyed in practice their use of journey space sociability with both Western and Other non Western journeyers experience of love sex and danger during the journey and how women fashioned a journeyer identity which fused their existing domestic identities with new journey identities such as the journey chronicler The journey is revealed to be an experience of sociability as much as mobility dominated by ideas of respectability and reputation class power vision and observation and home as well as the foreign and new The Mining Journal, Railway and Commercial Gazette ,1896 Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal ,1888 The Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal ,1888 Live Stock Journal ,1902 A Home Front Diary 1914-1918 Lillie Scales,2014-01-15 Fascinating insightful and incredibly moving the First World War Home Front through one woman s eyes The Freemason and Masonic Illustrated. A Weekly Record of Progress in Freemasonry ,1892 Mining Journal, Railway & Commercial Gazette ,1905 The Discovery and Exploration of Australia Erwin Herman Josef Feeken,Gerda Elisabeth Emma Feeken,1970 The Gazetteer includes details of who bestowed the place names and after whomn or what they were named European Discovery and Exploration of Australia Erwin Feeken,2019-06-21 The map of Australia abounds with fascinating geographical place names the origins of which have for long been hidden in the journals of our early explorers Now after nine years of research Erwin Feeken a highly qualified cartographer and his wife Gerda have finalised the first complete record of Australian geographical place names and the most comprehensive general reference work on Australian exploration ever published In European Discovery and Exploration of Australia there are twenty three beautifully drawn four colour maps plus index showing the routes of more than 120 explorers with the locality of their named features numbered to accord with a Key to the Maps The place names in the Key have been numbered approximately in chronological order of their naming though places found during a single expedition have been grouped together There is also a gazetteer containing over four thousand place names alphabetically arranged with notes on their origins The map reference numbers in brackets form a cross reference with the Key to the Maps The work is introduced by a foreword from Lord Casey and an essay on the nature of Australian exploration by Professor O H K Spate director of the Research School of Pacific Studies Australian National University The text comprising a survey of Australian exploration is arranged in the form of biographies of the explorers describing for the first time several almost unknown figures with emphasis on their expeditions and under the following headings The Approach to Australia Exploration before Settlement 1606 1788 From Botany Bay to the Blue Mountains 1788 1813 Land and Sea Expeditions 1813 1901 This section of the book is very fully illustrated with 18 full colour plates and some 150 black and white photographs mostly reproductions of early prints Concluding the book are bibliographies of sources and references a list of illustrations and an index of explorers and ships The comprehensive nature of this work will ensure that it becomes a valuable reference book for students while the text and illustrations will appeal to all who are interested in our history Collectors of Australiana will welcome this most attractive addition to the ever increasing number of available publications
