to the richness and diversity of the Yale University Art Gallery's holdings of American art. An introductory essay outlines pivotal moments in the three hundred year history of collecting, exhibiting and teaching with American art at Yale and commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Friends of American Arts at Yale whose support continues to ensure the excellence of the collection. The more than one hundred object entries that follow create a narrative that charts the multiplicity of experiences and accomplishments of artists and artisans living and working in North America from the earliest days of European settlement to the present. Among the catalogued objects are works by some of the best known names in American art as well as recent acquisitions and masterpieces that represent diverse American identities. A dazzling range of media is displayed including paintings and sculpture, medals, prints and drawings, photographs, jewelry, furniture and decorative arts. Each object is illustrated with a full page image and is accompanied by a one page discussion that focuses on its contribution to the history of American art. Schurman, 'The Star of Utrecht' Anne R. Larsen, 2016-04-14 Dutch Golden Age scholar Anna Maria van Schurman was widely regarded throughout the seventeenth century as the most learned woman of her age. She was The Star of Utrecht, The Dutch Minerva, The Tenth Muse, a miracle of her sex, the incomparable Virgin and the oracle of Utrecht. As the first woman ever to attend a university, she was also the first to advocate boldly that women should be admitted into universities. A brilliant linguist, she mastered some fifteen languages. She was the first Dutch woman to seek publication of her correspondence. Her letters in several languages, Hebrew, Greek, Latin and French, to the intellectual men and women of her time, reveal the breadth of her interests in theology, philosophy, medicine, literature, numismatics, painting, sculpture, embroidery and instrumental music. This study addresses Van Schurman's transformative contribution to the seventeenth century debate on women's education. It analyses first her educational philosophy and second the transnational reception of her writings on women's education, particularly in France. Anne Larsen explores how, in advocating advanced learning for women, Van Schurman challenged the educational establishment of her day to allow women to study all the arts and the sciences. Her letters offer fascinating insights into the challenges that scholarly women faced in the early modern period when they sought to define themselves as intellectuals, writers and thoughtful contributors to the social good. Library of
