

Birth of Jesus Christ	Baptism of Jesus Christ	Death of Jesus/Creation of the Church	Conversion of Paul
6-5 B.C.	A.D. 26	A.D. 30	A.D. 34
Jesus Christ was born to a "virgin" named Mary and a man named Joseph. He was born in the city of Bethlehem. Under the threat of King Herod the family fled to Egypt then to the city Nazareth. Jesus lived in Nazareth throughout his childhood, therefore fulfilling the prophecy that the Messiah will be called a Nazarene.	Jesus came to the Jordan River and is baptized there by John the Baptist. After the baptism, the heavens open, the holy spirit like a dove descends, and a heavenly voice declares Jesus is his Son. Jesus then goes into the wilderness where the devil tempts him, and when he returns he begins his ministry.	Before Jesus' death the gentiles were excluded including: healing the sick, blind, deaf, & lame, raising the widow, raising a son, raising the dead, and raising his daughter. The Son is discipleship and travels from city to city teaching the Word of God. However, Jesus explains to his disciples during Passover that the most difficult thing is the Son is betrayed by Judas and crucified by the Romans. He is put on a trial then crucified, but three days later He is resurrected.	While on the road from Tarsus to Damascus, Saul was blinded by a flash of light from the sky and dropped to the ground. Blinded, his disciples led him to the man and for three days he didn't eat or drink. Paul claimed to have seen Christ, and when his experience he addressed his Jewish faith to become a Christian. On the third evening Jesus Christ, Paul claims to be an Apostle: "Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord?"

	Matthew's Gospel A.D. 45-50	James A.D. 49	Galatians A.D. 48
Paul Visits Antioch	First Mission Journey	Paul Visits Antioch	Jerusalem Conference
A.D. 40-42	A.D. 45-48	A.D. 49-50	A.D. 51
After Paul's conversion, he dedicated his life to spreading the Word. He travels with Barnabas to many cities, Antioch being the first stop on their first mission journey. In Antioch the Jews then (as I call them) begin preaching Jesus' teachings to the gentiles in synagogues. This is the beginning of the early Christian Church.	After leaving Antioch the two travel to the island of Cyprus. Continuing their preaching of the Gospel they travel to many parts of Asia Minor, including the city of Lystra. Here the two face much difficulty teaching the Gospel because the Lystrians had no prior knowledge of God. However, when Jesus returns there Paul and he is forced to flee to Derbe. He continues his teachings there, but eventually returns to the other cities to encourage disciples, form churches, and appoint elders.	After his first, life endagering journey, Paul reports back to Antioch, where he gathers and settles the church.	The Jerusalem Conference was a meeting among the Jews and Christians in which Moses' law was discussed and debated over. Paul wins at the meeting in Acts.
