Law, Narrative and Masterplot Chris Bevan, David Gurnham, 2025-06-13 The book brings together a range of socio legal and law and humanities scholars to elaborate and explore the idea of the legal masterplot There is a class of narrative sometimes referred to as masterplot or metanarrative that stands above the plethora of other stories plots and myths that may be found in law This book focuses on the masterplot concept as providing a productive yet largely under explored way of seeing understanding and responding to legal controversies and socio legal problems Masterplots may be understood as those prevalent and enduring ideas and narratives that form the basis of expectations assumptions stereotypes and prejudices In legal contexts masterplots give shape and significance to particular experiences or issues In aligning with them legal arguments judgments and reforms gain acceptability and can be presented as authoritative proportionate and legitimate Reflecting from different legal perspectives and subdisciplines on the masterplots at play in our current legal frameworks this collection illuminates the often hidden ways in which law functions This book will appeal to students and scholars of socio legal studies sociology social policy and humanities approaches to law Legislating for Wales Thomas Glyn Watkin, Daniel Greenberg, 2018-09-01 It provides a critical description and evaluation of how laws are made for Wales including the most recent changes made by the Wales Act 2017 which come into effect in 2018 It analyses and assesses the process of preparing and drafting legislation for Wales in terms of the requirements of democratic processes and respect for the rule of law It analyses and assesses the legislative procedures of the legislatures which make law for Wales explaining how they reflect the demands of law making in a representative democracy It is written in a clear and accessible style which does not require prior knowledge of its subject matter It is written by two authors who between them have considerable experience at the highest levels of the law making processes of Wales and the UK Trends in Magnetism:
