Living More Human(e)ly? Rebecca Leong, 2025-04-22 Does it really matter who one chooses to marry and how one makes a choice as to who to marry or is it basically true that you always marry the wrong person Was Jane Austen right in her portrayals of couples marrying for love for comfort or for both What about arranged marriages Does the one exist How about soulmates Will getting involved in casual sex or hook up culture affect one's chances of eventually realizing happy lifelong monogamy Are promoters of purity culture basically right that their approach will help lead to happy lasting marriages Can there be a way forward through the culture wars Are dating apps any good Virtue ethics is sometimes drawn upon for a dependable approach to couple relationships But what does this approach consist of and which virtues as there are potentially very many should one focus on particularly when navigating dating culture in contemporary contexts What light might theology history and the human sciences including sociology and psychology shed on these matters Rebecca Leong offers findings from wide ranging interdisciplinary studies that address these questions and more in the process developing a five fold ethic and further building blocks for better approaches to dating in contemporary contexts

When God Speaks Through Worship Craig A. Satterlee, 2009-01-08 When God Speaks through Worship Stories Congregations Live By is a collection of stories of congregational worship in which God's ongoing presence speech and activity are apparent These stories of proclaiming the gospel teaching the faith praying singing baptizing blessing and sharing bread and wine in Jesus's name share the purpose of these activities in worship yet still challenge the reader to explore the motives behind them When we worship in church are we worshipping God or ourselves Has worship become more people centered than Christ centered We have our preferred styles but is that getting in the way of the purpose of worship In his follow up to When God Speaks through Change Preaching in Times of Congregational Transition and When God Speaks through You How Faith Convictions Shape Preaching and Mission Craig A Satterlee uses eight stories to inspire other congregations to seek God through their worship He discusses both the joys and challenges of worship as well as the supportive parts of it such as specific vocations planning and communication However your church chooses to express itself through worship this book will make you think about how you re going about it why and what impact it is having on the people within your congregation and the community around it Always Separate, Always Connected Catherine Raeff,2006-08-15 This book presents a fresh conceptualization which holds that independence and interdependence are multifaceted and inseparable dimensions of human functioning that may be defined and enacted differently in different cultures Thus the current approach

Surrender Regina Steward,2016-12-28 Surrender For Gods Glory is a six week Bible study that catapults the student into the lives of men and women of faith who abandoned themselves to God and brought glory to his name through their surrender As you explore their devotion you will be challenged to forsake self will and pursue Gods divine purpose for your life Beginning in the garden you will recognize in Adam and Eve our tendency to doubt Gods generous favor toward us Be inspired anew by Hannah as she prostrates her longing heart before God and returns again to relinquish the fulfillment of her desire back to his loving hands From the trials and triumphs of Daniel and his companions to the vivid example of surrender lived out in Jesuss perfectly submissive mission to save mankind Regina Steward invites you to a closer and more intimate relationship with the one who created you for his divine purpose Prepare your heart to raise the white flag in submission to the lover of your soul Jehovah our Lord and King Prepare to surrender for Gods glory Mathematics Teaching, Learning, and Liberation in the Lives of Black Children Danny Bernard Martin,2010-06-21 With issues of equity at the forefront of mathematics education research and policy Mathematics Teaching Learning and Liberation in the Lives of Black Children fills the need for authoritative rigorous scholarship that sheds light on the ways that young black learners experience mathematics in schools and their communities This timely collection significantly extends the knowledge base on mathematics teaching learning participation and policy for black children and it provides new framings of relevant issues that researchers can use in future work More importantly this book helps move the field beyond analyses that continue to focus on and normalize failure by giving primacy to the stories that black learners tell about themselves and to the voices of mathematics educators whose work has demonstrated a commitment to the success of these children Christ and Families J. N. Manokaran,2011-12-30 Family is challenged today in multivarious ways Manokaran addresses the various issues faced by families from a scriptural and Christian perspective In simple style but in practical wisdom he compiles the content of this book which I am glad to commend to all Christian families to edify them
