Model-Based Monitoring and Statistical Control Kohei Ohtsu, 2024-06-11 Available in English for the first time this classic and influential book by the late Kohei Ohtsu presents real examples of ships in motion under irregular ocean waves how to understand the characteristics of fluctuations of stochastic phenomena through spectral analysis methods and statistical modeling It also explains how to realize prediction and optimal control based on time series models In recent years the need to improve safety and reduce environmental impact in ship operations has been increasing and the statistical methods presented in this book will be increasingly needed in the future In addition the recent development of innovative AI technology and highspeed communications will make it possible to adapt this method not only to ship monitoring and control but also to any field that involves irregular fluctuations and it is expected to contribute to solving issues that have been difficult to solve in the past Part 1 describes classical spectral method for the analysis of stochastic phenomena In Part 2 this book explains methods to construct time series models using the information criterion to capture the characteristics of ship and engine motions using the model to design a model based monitoring system that informs navigators operating the ship and managers ashore Furthermore it explains statistical control method to design an autopilot system and the governor of a marine engine while showing actual examples Part 3 presents the basic knowledge necessary for understanding these topics of the book namely the basic theory of ship motion probability and statistics Kalman filter and statistical optimal control theory

Hybridity Vanessa Guignery, Catherine Pessoa-Miquel, François Specq, 2011-09-22 Over the last two decades the unstable notion of hybridity has been the focus of a number of debates in cultural and literary studies and has been discussed in connection with such notions as métissage creolization syncretism diaspora transculturation and in-betweenness The aim of this volume is to form a critical assessment of the scope significance and role of the notion in literature and the visual arts from the eighteenth century to the present day The contributors propose to examine the development and various manifestations of the concept as a principle held in contempt by the partisans of racial purity a process enthusiastically promoted by adepts of mixing and syncretism but also a notion viewed with suspicion by those who decry its multifarious and triumphalist dimensions and its lack of political roots The notion of hybridity is analysed in relation to the concepts of identity nationhood language and culture drawing from the theories of Mikhail Bakhtin Homi Bhabha Robert Young Paul Gilroy and Edouard Glissant among others Contributors examine forms of hybridity in the work of such canonical writers as Daniel Defoe Robert Louis Stevenson Thomas De Quincey and Victor Hugo as well as in contemporary American and British fiction Neo Victorian and postcolonial literature The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl, Emily Morris, 2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement Loving A Lost Lord Mary Jo Putney, 2012-06-06 The intoxicating romantic and utterly ravishing start to the Lost Lords series by the New York Times bestselling author of the Rogues Redeemed novels Eloisa James In the first of a dazzling series Mary Jo Putney introduces the Lost Lords maverick childhood friends with a flair for defying convention Each is about to discover the woman who is his perfect match but perfection doesn't come easily even for the noble Duke of Ashton Battered by the sea Adam remembers nothing of his past his ducal rank nor of the shipwreck that almost claimed his life However he is delighted to hear that the golden haired vision tending his wounds is his wife Mariah's name and face may not be familiar but her touch her warmth feel deliciously right When Mariah Clarke prayed for a way to deter a bullying suitor she didn't imagine she'd find the answer washed ashore on a desolate beach Convincing Adam that he is her husband is surprisingly easy Resisting the temptation to act his wife in every way will prove anything but And now a passion begun in fantasy has become dangerously real and completely irresistible Gentle humor exotic elements compelling flawless prose and irresistible characters caught in a sweet sensual dilemma will leave readers smiling breathless and anxiously awaiting the next adventure Library Journal starred review The enchanting first Lost Lords novel confirms bestseller Putney as a major force in historical romance Entrancing characters and a superb plot line catapult this tale into stand alone status Publishers Weekly starred review The Athenaeum, 1909 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1907 Routledge Library Editions: Joseph Conrad Various, 2021-09-30 Joseph Conrad 1857-1924 is widely considered one of the great modern writers in English literature This 21 volume set contains titles originally published between 1976 and 1990 as well as a biography from 1957 written by one of his closest friends The first 18 books are a set of concordances and indexes to Conrad's printed works which were part of a project directed by Todd K Bender at the
