The United States Catalog, 1921 American Medical Biographies Howard Atwood Kelly, Walter Lincoln Burrage, 1920 Child Therapy in the Great Outdoors Sebastiano Santostefano, 2013-04-15 Building on relational conceptualizations of enactment and on developmental research that attests to the role of embodied nonverbal language in the meanings children impute to their experiences Sebastiano Santostefano offers this compelling demonstration of effective child therapy conducted in the great outdoors Specifically he argues that for the child traumatic life metaphors should be resolved at an embodied rather than an exclusively verbal level they should be resolved that is as they are enacted between child and therapist To this end child and therapist must take advantage of all the indoor and outdoor environments available to them As they take therapy to nontraditional places relying on the nonverbal vocabulary they have constructed together they move toward enacted solutions to relational crises solutions that revise the child s sense of self and ability to form new and productive relationships
