

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2012 question paper
for the guidance of teachers

5070 CHEMISTRY

5070/42

Paper 4 (Alternative to Practical), maximum raw mark 60

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

- Cambridge will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2012 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

 origins of the modern examination system in England from 1850 to 1900 At the beginning of the nineteenth century public examinations were almost unknown yet by its end they were established as the most generally acceptable method of assessment and selection with many they had become almost an article of the Victorian faith though their objectivity and efficacy were already becoming matters of public controversy The Oxford and Cambridge honours examinations provided a major source for Victorian ideas of open competition and public examinations It was seen that this model could be applied to landmarks were the Northcote Trevelyan Report of 1853 on the Civil Service the foundation of the Oxford and Cambridge
