25 10-minute Plays from Actors Theatre of Louisville, 1989 25 in 10 Kent R. Brown, 2002 Ten-minute Plays Liz Engelman, Michele Volansky, 1993 The Ultimate Scene and Monologue Sourcebook, Updated and Expanded Edition Ed Hooks, 2007-10-16 All actors and acting teachers need The Ultimate Scene and Monologue Sourcebook the invaluable guide to finding just the right piece for every audition This remarkable book describes the characters action and mood for more than 1 000 scenes in over 300 plays This unique format is ideal for acting teachers who want their students to understand each monologue in context Using these guidelines the actor can quickly pinpoint the perfect monologue then find the text in the Samuel French or Dramatist Play Service edition of the play Newly revised and expanded the book also includes the author s own assessment of each monologue The Theater of Lee Blessing Philip Zwerling, 2016-05-19 Nominated for Pulitzer Tony and Obie awards among others Lee Blessing has shaped American theater over the last 40 years Tackling subjects like child abuse racism sexism and war as well as baseball love and religion Blessing has dedicated himself to investigating and dramatizing both the triumphs and evils of contemporary society This book examines for the first time all 44 of his plays and includes one of his unpublished scripts providing a definitive text on a playwright whose thought provoking work has been performed around the world Good Boys Jane Martin, 2003 A fierce encounter between fathers one black and one white opens a deeply disturbing chapter in their lives The men relive the school shooting in which their sons died one a victim and the other the shooter When racial issues threaten to derail all hope for understanding and forgiveness the black father s other son takes matters into his own hands He pushes the confrontation to a dangerous and frightening climax Good Boys explores the pressures of modern family life and the breaking points of men and boys and it raises the question To what extent are parents responsible for their children s behavior This topical drama by the author of Keely and Du premiered at the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis You Can Write a Play! Milton E. Polsky, 2002-02-01 Do you have an idea for a play A situation or experience from your home or work life Fantasy With helpful clear examples taken from his own experiences in teaching directing and playwriting Milton Polsky shows how to find and shape a dramatic idea and bring it to fruition In addition to providing many practical exercises suggestions and tips he discusses and illustrates with examples from established playwrights the importance of giving shape to your idea so that what is in your head and heart can be expressed to the fullest To facilitate this creative process there are What if Just for You Playwright s Page sections diagrams journal exercises and for this revised edition end of chapter Suggested Activities for the Classroom solo and group additional appendices including one on feedback and over 50 new photos This invaluable and basic guide to writing plays is ideal for teachers students camp counselors community theatre leaders and for anyone who knows there s a play inside trying to get out Stage Directing Jim Patterson, 2014-08-19 Flexible and concise Stage Directing details the seven steps that make up the directing process selecting a work analyzing and researching the playscript conceiving the production casting beginning rehearsals polishing rehearsals and giving and receiving criticism Each step is highlighted with valuable directing tips as well as examples from modern and contemporary playscripts and productions Exercises objectives and key terms put directing precepts to a practical test revealing what is significant about each phase of the process Over eighty charts graphs and photographs unite to exemplify the text With a fresh voice and an engaging writing style Patterson provides insightful questions suggestions and illustrations that define and invoke contemplation about the role of the director Three original short plays provide the opportunity for hands on analysis and the application of practical concepts In a final essay Patterson highlights the function and growing artistry of the director in the modern and postmodern theatre by concisely examining the history of the director Ten-minute Theatre David S. Raine,1994 The Humana Festival Jeffrey Ullom,2008-06-19 Far from the glittering lights of Broadway in a city known more for its horse racing than its artistic endeavors an annual festival in Louisville Kentucky has transformed the landscape of the American theater The Actors Theatre of Louisville the Tony Award winning state theater of Kentucky in 1976 successfully created what became the nation's most respected new play festival the Humana Festival of New American Plays The Humana Festival The History of New Plays at Actors Theatre of Louisville examines the success of the festival and theater's Pulitzer Prize winning productions that for decades have reflected new play trends in regional theaters and on Broadway the result of the calculated decisions dogged determination and good luck of its producing director Jon Jory The volume details how Actors Theatre of Louisville was established why the Humana Festival became successful in a short time and how the event's success has been maintained by the Louisville venue that has drawn theater critics from around the world for more than thirty years Author Jeffrey Ullom charts the theater's early struggles to survive the battles between troupe leaders and the desperate measures to secure financial support from the Louisville community He examines how Jory established and expanded the festival to garner extraordinary local support attract international attention and entice preeminent American playwrights to premier their works in the Kentucky city In The Humana Festival Ullom provides a broad view of new play development within artistic administrative and financial contexts He analyzes the relationship between Broadway and regional theaters outlining how the Humana Festival has changed the process of new play development and even Broadway's approach to discovering new work and also highlights the struggles facing regional theaters across the country as they strive to balance artistic ingenuity and economic viability Offering a rare look at the annual event The Humana Festival provides the first insider's view of the extraordinary efforts that produced the nation's most successful new play festival 30 Ten-minute Plays for 3 Actors from Actors Theatre of Louisville's National Ten-minute Play Contest Michael Bigelow Dixon,Amy Wegener,Stephen Moulds,2001 Arranged by gender groupings provides a selection of contemporary ten minute plays by playwrights including David Henry Hwang Tina Howe Jon Jory and Craig Lucas The Director as Collaborator Robert Knopf,2015-10-05 The Director as Collaborator teaches essential directing skills while emphasizing how directors and theatre productions benefit from collaboration Good collaboration occurs when the director shares responsibility for the artistic creation with the entire production including actors designers stage managers and technical staff Leadership does not preclude collaboration in theatre these concepts can and should be complementary Students will develop their abilities by directing short scenes and plays and by participating in group exercises Walking on Fire Jim Linnell,2011-10-08 In this bold new way of looking at dramatic structure Jim Linnell establishes the central role of emotional experience in the conception execution and reception of plays Walking on Fire The Shaping Force of Emotion in Writing Drama examines dramatic texts through the lens of human behavior to identify the joining of event and emotion in a narrative defined by Linnell as emotional form Effectively building on philosophy psychology and critical theory in ways useful to both scholars and practitioners Linnell unfolds the concept of emotional form as the key to understanding the central shaping force of drama He highlights the Dionysian force of human emotion in the writer as the genesis for creative work and articulates its power to determine narrative outcomes and audience reaction Walking on Fire contains writing exercises to open up playwrights to the emotional realities and challenges of their work Additionally each chapter offers case studies of traditional and nonlinear plays in the known canon that allow readers to evaluate the construction of these works and the authors practices and intentions through an examination of the emotional form embedded in the central characters language thoughts and behaviors The plays discussed include Henrik Ibsen s A Doll s House William Shakespeare s Hamlet Athol Fugard s MASTER HAROLD and the boys Donald Margulies s The Loman Family Picnic Harold Pinter s The Birthday Party and Tony Kushner s Angels in America Walking on Fire opens up new conversations about content and emotion for writers and offers exciting answers to the questions of why we make drama and why we connect to it Linnell s userfriendly theory and passionate approach create a framework for understanding the links between the writer s work in creating the text the text itself and the audience s engagement 30
