Mobility between Africa, Asia and Latin America Ute Röschenthaler,Alessandro

Jedlowski,2017-08-15 Trade connections and cultural exchange between Africa and the rest of the global South have existed for centuries Since the end of the Cold War these connections have expanded and diversified dramatically with emerging economies such as China India and Brazil becoming increasingly important both as sources of trade and as a destination for African migrants But while these trends have attracted growing scholarly attention there has so far been little appreciation of the sheer breadth and variety of this exchange or of its deeper social impact This collection brings together a wide array of scholarly perspectives to explore the movement of people commodities and ideas between Africa and the wider global South with rich empirical case studies ranging from Senegalese migrants in Argentina to Lebanese traders in Nigeria The contributors argue that this exchange represents a form of globalization from below which defies many of the prevailing Western assumptions about migration and development and which can only be understood if we consider the full range and complexity of migrant experiences Multidisciplinary in scope Mobility between Africa Asia and Latin America is essential reading for students and scholars across the social sciences interested in the interconnected economic and social make up of the global South

Jack Goody between Social Anthropology and World History LIT Verlag,2024-10-01 A giant of British social anthropology Jack Goody 1919 2015 laboured for sixty years to transcend the view that anthropology was the study of other cultures He wanted to move it in the direction of a more sociological postcolonial comparative social science. The most important precondition for this science was the freeing of world history from centuries of Eurocentric bias. From his base in Cambridge, Goody's influence and inspiration spread out internationally. In Germany as a long-term adviser to the Max Planck Society, he played a key role in the establishment of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle Saale in 1999. This volume presents twelve Goody Lectures delivered in Halle between 2011 and 2022 together with an unpublished lecture given in 2004 by Goody himself and biographical and bibliographical essays by the editors.

Proceedings of the International Conference on Sustainable Innovation on Health Sciences and Nursing (ICOSI-HSN 2022) Iman Permana, Erna Rochmawati, 2023-02-10. This is an open access book. This proceedings consists of research presented in ICOSI UMY on 20-21 July 2022 at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta. The conference covers the topic of health sciences and nursing. The key lesson from the COVID-19 pandemic is that the goal of health innovation should be Health for All. To achieve this goal, health innovations must be regulated in such a way as to benefit as many people globally as possible. Some critical issues in the scope of improving medical education and medicine, biomedical science innovation, and increasing quality of public health for better life are discussed. The proceedings include articles from Dental sciences, Pharmaceutical sciences, and Nursing sciences. As technology developers focused on providing impactful solutions to global development challenges, we have learnt that technology alone cannot be a solution to the problem. It has to be seen in the context where the solution is applied. The world crisis should spur us all to explore a new form of globalization for the future years, one that prioritizes collective investment in global public goods, including technological and ethical goods, to the benefit of all. Such global integration must enable diverse stakeholders from across the public, private, and non-profit sectors worldwide to work more effectively and sustainably together. The 6th International Conference on Sustainable Innovation 2022 brings out the issues of the Sustainable Innovation and Global Society. With the main theme of Optimizing Global Benefit for Future Wellbeing, this conference is trying to play a role as a vehicle of showcasing scientific works from around the world, not only from researchers, lecturers, government officers, students, and all parties with the same interests alike. Finally, all 51 papers published in this proceedings are expected not only as research output but can be developed further into prototypes or evidence for policy making.

The Vortex Frank Uekötter, 2024-04-18. Environmental challenges are defining the twenty-first century. To fully understand ongoing debates about our current crises—climate change, loss of biological diversity, pollution, extinction, resource woes—means revisiting their origins in all their complexity. With this ambitious, highly original contribution to the environmental history of global modernity, Frank Uekötter considers the many ways humans have had an impact on their physical environment throughout history. Ours is not a one-way trajectory to sudden collapse, he argues, but rather death by a thousand cuts. The many paths we've forged to arrive in our current predicament, from agriculture to industry to infrastructure, must be considered collectively if we are to stay afloat in what Uekötter describes as a vortex, a powerful metaphor for the flow of history capturing the momentum and the many crosscurrents that swept people and environments along His book invites us to look at environmental challenges from multiple perspectives including all the twists and turns that have helped to create the mess we find ourselves in Uek tter has written a world history for an age where things are falling apart where we know what lies ahead and are equipped with the right tools technological and otherwise and plenty of experience to deal with environmental challenges but somehow fail to get our affairs in order
