		Rebranding can be used as a tool or catalyst to improve quality of places (economic, social and environmental) and there are a range of linked ideas here: inward investment attracting other businesses etc and positive spirals. One of the issues with rebranding is to what extent schemes actually benefit all rural communities, especially those that are the most deprived or hidden. Simple idea is that high levels of deprivation (or inequality) may mean that places are in need of rebranding, i.e., they become special priorities. Therefore there should be a strong linkage. Rural areas discussed could be wide variety of locations – obviously inaccessibility (including coastal) will feature highly. High levels of deprivation + poverty may not equate with basis of rebranding. Process more likely to be driven by commercial opportunity / entrepreneurship – places that are highly accessible + close to large catchments may be highly prized.
Level	Mark	Descriptor
Level 1	1–4	Basic and generalised with few ideas on deprivation / rebranding. Lacks structure and very limited use of geographical terminology. Limited or no reference to a real place. Considerable errors in language.
Level 2	5–7	Some structure. Likely to be lacking in either range or depth, but shows / implies some understanding of deprivation and need for rebranding. There are some written language errors.
Level 3	8–10	A clear response which examines possible link between deprivation and rebranding. Considers 'need'. Likely to exemplify. Well structured and balanced response. Written language errors are rare.
