5 Inspiring Sermons John Calvin:

John Calvin's Sermons on the Ten Commandments John Calvin, 2019-07-11 A collection of sixteen sermons by John Calvin that shed light on his understanding and application of the Ten Commandments Widely known as one of the church's most significant theologians John Calvin was also a skilled preacher with the ability to proclaim biblical truth with power and relevance These sermons develop the essence of his teaching on the moral law in a popular and engaging manner Pastors preaching through the Ten Commandments Bible students and anyone interested in Calvin's views on the Ten Commandments will take great delight in reading his exposition of the Decalogue which is called the true and eternal rule of righteousness for all who wish to conform their lives to God's will

The Heart of Piety: An Encouraging Study in Calvin's Doctrine of Assurance Timothy A. Williams, 2010 John Calvin on the Visions of Ezekiel Erik A. de Boer, 2019-01-03 John Calvin's sermons on Ezekiel held between 1552 and 1554 in the church la Madeleine in Geneva and now studied for the first time offer intriguing material on his exposition of prophetic visions The manuscripts disclose the reformer's preaching on the book as a whole including the visions on the restoration of Israel Gog and Magog and the great temple vision The first part of this study focuses on the history of patristic medieval and 16th century exegesis of Ezekiel The second part is a systematic theological analysis of the hermeneutical principles of Calvin's exposition of visionary revelation Finally the sermons on the visions of Ezek 36-48 a unique specimen of literal historical exegesis with a christological perspective are analysed

Divine Accommodation in John Calvin's Theology Arnold Huijgen, 2011-04-20 Arnold Huijgen analyses and assesses the idea of divine accommodation in John Calvin's theology He proves that Calvin's idea of accommodation was terminologically influenced by Erasmus while its content originated in patristic theology Though Calvin's idea of accommodation is multifaceted Huijgen subsumes and analyzes it in the light of the two main perspectives of pedagogy and revelation The pedagogical aspect relates to Calvin's understanding of salvation history and the relation between the Old and the New Testament In this perspective Christ as the mediator holds a central position The aspect of revelation focuses on Calvin's comprehension of God's nature which for him is behind God's revelation Calvin's understanding of accommodation implies a distinct dynamic to revelation which is disrupted by its static hierarchical ontology Huijgen points out the weaknesses of Calvin's idea of accommodation on the basis of modern critiques by Karl Barth Isaak August Dorner and Harry M Kuitert he also explores the viable points for present day theology

Allison, 2011-04-19 Historical Theology presents the key pillars of the contemporary church and the development of those doctrines as they evolved from the history of Christian thought Most historical theology texts follow Christian beliefs in a strict chronological manner with the classic theological loci scattered throughout various time periods movements and controversies making for good history but confusing theology This companion to the classic bestseller Systematic Theology is unique among historical theologies Gregg Allison sets out the history of Christian doctrine according to a topical chronological arrangement one theological element at a time instead of committing to a discussion of theological thought according to its historical appearance alone This method allows you to Contemplate one tenet of Christianity at a time along with its formulation in the early church through the Middle Ages Reformation and post Reformation era and into the modern period Become familiar with the primary source material of Christian history s most important contributors such as Cyprian Augustine Aquinas Luther Calvin Barth and others Understand the development of evangelical doctrine with a focus on the centrality of the gospel Discern a sense of urgent need for greater doctrinal understanding in the whole church Historical Theology is an easy to read textbook for any Christian who wants to know how the church has come to believe what it believes today Gregg Allison s clear and concise structure make this resource an ideal introduction to Christian doctrine

The Fear of the Lord Michael Allen, 2022-01-13 This volume examines what it means to proceed in the path of wisdom by beginning with fear of God that is mindfulness always and everywhere of God s being and presence Michael Allen describes the praxis of fearing the Lord how that posture of contemplative pursuit marks the theological task and defines our theological method in so doing it takes up the significant topics of divine revelation theological exegesis intellectual asceticism and retrieval ressourcement from a distinctly doctrinal perspective In each of these conversations doing theology in the presence of God functions as a consistent thread God is not mere object but truly functions as subject in the process of theological growth though God s presence and agency fund rather than negate creaturely theological responsibility The Fear of the Lord Essays on Theological Method explores some of the most central questions of contemporary theological method revelation Scripture theological interpretation retrieval intellectual asceticism scholastic method by asking in each and every case what it means to think fundamentally of the perfect and present God involved and active in these spheres Feminist and Womanist Essays in Reformed Dogmatics Amy Plantinga Pauw, Serene Jones, 2006-04-17 This book is a collection of essays by thirteen feminist and womanist authors who locate themselves within the Reformed tradition Topics explored include the Trinity creation election atonement the church fear resistance and vocation This book will be of great interest to scholars and students interested in feminist theology The Columbia Series in Reformed Theology represents a joint commitment by Columbia Theological Seminary and Westminster John Knox Press to provide theological resources from the Reformed tradition for the church today This series examines theological and ethical issues that confront church and society in our own particular time and place Calvin and the Bible Donald K. McKim, 2006-05-11 During the past several decades a growing number of scholars have come to appreciate the importance of studying John Calvin's interpretive work as a commentator on Scripture in addition to his better known writings on theology In this volume ten essays by scholars specializing in Calvin's exegetical methods examine the approaches and themes Calvin emphasized when he interpreted major portions of Scripture These essays focus on Calvin's work in his biblical commentaries with appropriate cross referencing to his other writings including his sermons A concluding essay synthesizes the main features of what has gone before to present an overall view of John Calvin as an interpreter and commentator on Holy Scripture An appreciation of Calvin's exegetical labors and his work as a biblical commentator are now recognized as key elements in Calvin scholarship

The Company of the Preachers David L. Larsen, 1998-09-01 This work by a veteran pastor and professor of homiletics looks at the history of preaching from its roots in the Old Testament prophets to its continuing development in the modern era The Ethics of Suicide Margaret Pabst Battin, 2015-09-11 Is suicide wrong profoundly morally wrong Almost always wrong but excusable in a few cases Sometimes morally permissible Imprudent but not wrong Is it sick a matter of mental illness Is it a private matter or a largely social one Could it sometimes be right or a noble duty or even a fundamental human right Whether it is called suicide or not what role may a person play in the end of his or her own life This collection of primary sources the principal texts of ethical interest from major writers in western and nonwestern cultures from the principal religious traditions and from oral cultures where observer reports of traditional practices are available spanning Europe Asia the Middle East Africa Oceania the Arctic and North and South America facilitates exploration of many controversial practical issues physician assisted suicide or aid in dying suicide in social or political protest self sacrifice and martyrdom suicides of honor or loyalty religious and ritual practices that lead to death including sati or widow burning hara kiri and sallekhana or fasting unto death and suicide bombings kamikaze missions jihad and other tactical and military suicides This collection has no interest in taking sides in controversies about the ethics of suicide rather it serves to expand the character of these debates by showing them to be multi dimensional a complex and vital part of human ethical thought Calvin and His Influence, 1509-2009 Irena Backus, Philip Benedict, 2011-09-08 This volume collects papers initially written as the plenary addresses for the largest international scholarly conference held in connection with the 500th anniversary of Calvin's birth organized in Geneva by the Institute of Reformation History The organizers chose as theme for the conference Calvin and His Influence 1509 2009 hoping to stimulate reflection about what Calvin's ideas and example have meant across the five centuries since his lifetime as well as about how much validity the classic interpretations that have linked his legacy to fundamental features of modernity such as democracy capitalism or science still retain A Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works, 11th Edition John F. Evans, 2025-01-21 A Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works 11th Edition by John F. Evans summarizes and briefly analyzes all recent and many older commentaries on each book of the Bible giving insightful comments on the approach of each commentary and its usefulness for biblical interpretation The easy to use book provides analysis in canonical order and includes helpful appendices for compiling a personal research library A Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works 11th Edition is a key reference tool for any student of the Bible pastors laity and scholars alike Engaging Biblical Authority William P. Brown, 2007-10-03 Is the Bible infallible as some churches claim Is it a historical document or a piece of literature as scholars suggest This helpful new book offers a brief introduction to the question of biblical authority using essays by sixteen scholars who use the Bible as the word of God in their own religious tradition and scholarship After William Brown introduces the basic issues of biblical authority each scholar presents a different but sympathetic view from his or her own perspective Included are traditional Reformed Lutheran Wesleyan Catholic Jewish and Orthodox views recent conservative and evangelical positions and critical African American Asian American Hispanic feminist and womanist perspectives Pagan Christianity? Frank Viola, George Barna, 2010-09-30 Have you ever wondered why we Christians do what we do for church every Sunday morning Why do we dress up for church Why does the pastor preach a sermon each week Why do we have pews steeples and choirs This ground breaking book now in affordable softcover makes an unsettling proposal most of what Christians do in present day churches is rooted not in the New Testament but in pagan culture and rituals developed long after the death of the apostles Coauthors Frank Viola and George Barna support their thesis with compelling historical evidence and extensive footnotes that document the origins of modern Christian church practices In the process the authors uncover the problems that emerge when the church functions more like a business organization than the living organism it was created to be As you reconsider Christ's revolutionary plan for his church to be the head of a fully functioning body in which all believers play an active role you'll be challenged to decide whether you can ever do church the same way again The World's Best Orations David Josiah Brewer, 1899 The text of thousands of speeches from all historical periods through the 19th century arranged in alphabetical order
