Surveillance Law, Data Retention and Human Rights Matthew White,2024-09-16 This book analyses the compatibility of data retention in the UK with the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR The increase in the use of modern technology has led to an explosion of generated data and with that a greater interest from law enforcement and intelligence agencies In the early 2000s data retention laws were introduced into the UK and across the European Union EU This was met by domestic challenges before national courts until a seminal ruling by the Court of Justice in the European Union CJEU ruled that indiscriminate data retention was incompatible with EU law Since then however the CJEU has revised its position and made certain concessions particularly under the guise of national security This book focuses on data retention in the UK with the principal aim of examining compatibility with the ECHR This is explored through a variety of ways including providing an account of democracy and why secret surveillance poses a threat to it a history of data retention assessing the seriousness that data retention poses to fundamental rights the collection of rights that are affected by data retention which are crucial for a functioning democracy the implications of who can be obligated to retain and what to retain the idea that data retention is a form of surveillance and ultimately with all things considered whether this is compatible with the ECHR The work will be an invaluable resource for students academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of privacy human rights law and surveillance

Armageddon and Paranoia Rodric Braithwaite,2017-09-21 A gripping account of the intense rivalry between Russia and the West from bestselling author and former diplomat Rodric Braithwaite In 1945 the atom bomb was dropped on Hiroshima Warfare was never the same again Armageddon and Paranoia relates how the power of the atom was harnessed to produce weapons capable of destroying human civilisation and what this has done to the world There are few villains in this story on both sides of the Iron Curtain dedicated scientists cracked the secrets of nature while dutiful military men planned out possible manoeuvres and politicians wrestled with intolerable decisions Patriotic citizens acquiesced to the idea that their country needed the ultimate means of defence Some protested citing the unanswerable question what end could possibly be served by such fearsome means None wanted to start a nuclear war but all were paranoid about what the other side might do The danger of annihilation by accident or design has never quite left the world As fears about who controls the nuclear codes continue to make headlines Rodric Braithwaite author of bestsellers Moscow 1941 and Afgantsy has painted a vivid and detailed portrait of this intense period in history and its terrifying implications today

Covering New York American regional stock exchanges international companies The Code Margaret O'Mara,2020-07-07 One of New York Magazine s best books on Silicon Valley The true behind the scenes history of the people who built Silicon Valley and shaped Big Tech in America Long before Margaret O Mara became one of our most consequential historians of the American led digital revolution she worked in the White House of Bill Clinton and Al Gore in the earliest days of the commercial Internet There she saw firsthand how deeply intertwined Silicon Valley was with the federal government and always had been and how shallow the common understanding of the secrets of the Valley s success actually was Now after almost five years of pioneering research O Mara has produced the definitive history of Silicon Valley for our time the story of mavericks and visionaries but also of powerful institutions creating the framework for innovation from the Pentagon to Stanford University It is also a story of a community that started off remarkably homogeneous and tight knit and stayed that way and whose belief in its own mythology has deepened into a collective hubris that has led to astonishing triumphs as well as devastating second order effects Deploying a wonderfully rich and diverse cast of protagonists from the justly famous to the unjustly obscure across four generations of explosive growth in the Valley from the forties to the present O Mara has wrestled one of the most fateful developments in modern American history into magnificent narrative form She is on the ground with all of the key tech companies chronicling the evolution in their offerings through each successive era and she has a profound fingertip feel for the politics of the sector and its relation to the larger cultural narrative about tech as it has evolved over the years Perhaps most impressive O Mara has penetrated the inner kingdom of tech venture capital firms the insular and still remarkably old boy world that became the cockpit of American capitalism and the crucible for bringing technological innovation to market or not The transformation of big tech into the engine room of the American economy and the nexus of so many of our hopes and dreams and increasingly our nightmares can be understood in Margaret O Mara s masterful hands as the story of one California valley As her majestic history makes clear its fate is the fate of us all Never Enough Time Brian H. Spitzberg,2025-10-24 Never Enough Time discusses the directional and irreversible nature of time its relationship to information and entropy the deep time history of communication from the genesis of language to today and the extent to which we occupy time through our communication Drawing together studies from a wide variety of disciplines and topics that provide quantitative estimates of how much daily time is expended communicating and relating to others the author demonstrates that in an increasingly accelerating mediated and information overloaded ecosystem we spend most of our time both socially and occupationally engaged in various forms of communication He examines the nature of time in the context of our increasingly overloaded and mediated information and communication ecosystem the extent to which our increasing screen time displaces face to face interaction and the implications this trend has for our quality and quantity of life particularly for younger populations In addition a case is made for the importance of developing standardized measures of time made all the more feasible with digital technologies already available for quantifying behavior at population scales This book will appeal to graduate students scholars and researchers interested in time communication theory new media and media studies and communication and personal relationships Handbook on Transport in Asia Sylvia Y. He, 2025-06-09 In this comprehensive Handbook Sylvia He brings together an array of leading experts to discuss key research areas and themes prevalent in the study of the transport sector in Asia including urbanisation mobility and accessibility land use planning low carbon technologies the application of big data and the challenges of creating sustainable and inclusive transport systems This title contains one or more Open Access chapters Innovate to Dominate Tai Ming Cheung, 2022-08-15 In Innovate to Dominate Tai Ming Cheung offers insight into why how and whether China will overtake the United States to become the world's preeminent technological and security power This examination of the means and ends of China's quest for techno security supremacy is required reading for anyone looking for clues as to the long term direction of the global order The techno security domain Cheung argues is where national security innovation and economic development converge and it has become the center of power and prosperity in the twenty first century China's paramount leader Xi Jinping recognizes that effectively harnessing the complex interactions among security innovation and development is essential in enabling China to compete for global dominance Cheung offers a richly detailed account of how China is building a potent techno security state In Innovate to Dominate he takes readers from the strategic vision guiding this transformation to the nuts and bolts of policy implementation The state led top down mobilizational model that China is pursuing has been a winning formula so far but the sternest test is ahead as China begins to compete head to head with the United States and aims to surpass its archrival by mid century if not sooner Innovate to Dominate is a timely and analytically rigorous examination of the key strategies guiding China's transformation of its capabilities in the national technological military and security spheres and how this is taking place Cheung authoritatively addresses the burning questions being asked in capitals around the world Can China become the dominant global techno security power And if so when
