National Constitution Preamble

We, the American Veterans who have served or are serving in the Armed Forces of the United States during and since World War II, fully realizing our responsibility to our community, to our state and to our nation, associate ourselves for the following purposes: to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States; to safeguard the principles of freedom, liberty and justice for all; to promote the cause of peace and goodwill among nations; to maintain inviolate the freedom of our country; to preserve the fundamentals of democracy; to perpetuate the friendship and associations of these veterans; and to dedicate ourselves to the cause of mutual assistance, this by the grace of God.

Important Role of the Post Chaplain

The Post Chaplain has been aptly designated as the VIP (Very Important Person) of the AMVETS.

The Chaplain need not be a clergyman but he/she must be a person capable of moral and intellectual leadership and one who gives dignity and respect to the office. He/she should be in close touch with the Commander and other officers of the Post and should attend all meetings of the Post and Executive Committee. The leadership in many of the Post's activities belongs of right to the Chaplain and when this office is filled by the right person the usefulness of the Post to the Community will be greatly increased.

If the Chaplain is a clergyman he/she can invite the Post to attend his/her church as a body on Memorial Sunday and Armistice Sunday (Veteran's Sunday). The sermon should be patriotic, holding up high ideals of American citizenship. If not a clergyman, he/she can arrange for these services alternately with churches of the community.

He/she should cooperate with the Post Historian in his/her graves registration work and inspire the Post to its full duty in seeing that all graves of servicemen are appropriately decorated on Memorial Day. In case the Post Historian is negligent in his/her duty, the Post Chaplain should not hesitate to bring the matter before the Post.

Besides officiating at funerals of deceased members the Chaplain can be of great service in case of deaths in families of members.

The sick should be visited. If there are hospitals nearby, arrangements should be made for frequent visits to ALL service patients.
