Society for Truth have become increasingly self righteous and insular Older Mormons are confused and frightened The first third of An American Fraud One Lawyer s Case against Mormonism chronicles the Author s journey out of the Religion The second two thirds of the Book the last six chapters are an expose including an analysis under the law The Author an experienced civil trial attorney places the activities of Mormon Leaders over almost two centuries in their proper legal framework analyzing not only the misrepresentations but the resulting damages political environmental and especially psycho social Ms Burningham writes that a determination of whether Mormon Leaders have historically misrepresented the origins of LDS theology does not involve a judicial evaluation of the truth of religious beliefs and is therefore not beyond the reach of the American legal system it is not constitutionally barred The issue is not whether Jesus Christ is the Son of God or the efficacy of prayer These things could never be determined by a secular court of law Instead the fraud committed by generations of Mormon Leaders is that they have misrepresented the facts surrounding the source of their scriptures presenting that source as divine when they have known otherwise Neither the golden plates nor the writings by the Old Testament prophet Abraham claimed to have been inscribed on purchased Egyptian papyri ever existed Furthermore the claimed visitations by biblical apostles to restore lost priesthoods to Smith and his colleagues never occurred And yet for decades LDS leaders have at least ignored if not suppressed and grossly misrepresented what has been proven to be the true facts surrounding Mormonism s origins reworking and re packaging the founding facts and the theology as necessary Those who joined the Church or continued on in the Religion reasonably relied on LDS leaders misrepresentations to their significant detriment Given what has been proven about its sources the Author claims that the Mormon Religion cannot continue to be defended under any guise as a religious organization for the good of its members
