Asian/American Curricular Epistemicide Nicholas D. Hartlep, Daniel P. Scott, 2016-08-18 In this important book Nicholas Hartlep and Daniel Scott's detailed analyses on both visual and historical representations of Asian Americans in textbooks and teacher manuals used in our elementary and secondary schools poignantly tell us that generations of children are growing up being fed this single story about Asian Americans As Hartlep and Scott write Asian Americans have once again been constructed as the good minority that can succeed on their own and be used as a political instrument to shame the Blacks for their underachievement and their fight for equality Over and over again the media has been telling a single story about Asian Americans to the public for the past fifty years The consequence of this fabricated story is that it discourages others even Asian Americans themselves from believing in the validity of their struggles Linshi 2014 p 1 Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006

New Leadership into the 21st Century Yahya ibn Shabazz, 2003-09-17 Imam W Deen Mohammed said in a public address words make people I believe that a word can be anything that leaves an impression on the minds of human society be it spoken acted out or whatever form it may take all creation is to be seen as a word According to scripture all creation is here as a result of a word spoken by G d so again we say words make people If we can go deeper and look at the mind of the human being and look at what kinds of words that are going into the mental makeup of a person we then can get a better picture of what forms the character of that person We must understand that our physical construction only acts as a vehicle that transports the mind which is the real person So just to view the physical makeup of a person is not really seeing that person at all It is the ideas the activities the words etc that comes from that persons mind that helps us to see the real person So now we can see the importance of understanding a word like leader Leader a person that leads or has commanding influence or authority over others The director conductor or guide Ship the state condition or quality of something Art skill of office So now we see that not only do we still need leaders but also we must have leaders that have the best interest of the people at heart Leaders with the vision the wisdom knowledge and the integrity to know when to stay or change courses so that not only will they be able to get the people to the next level but will also give the people the knowledge so that they may guide themselves through the rough waters of society When we talk about leadership we should understand that for the subject to even come up there has to be something lacking in the minds of the people in term of where we as a people or as a society want to go and how we are going to reach the goals we have set for ourselves In todays society we hear some foolish people make the statement I dont need a leader Or I follow my self I make my own decisions We must understand that theres not a thought or an idea that we can think of that is our very own We are influenced by the environment that we live in We should also realize that this society is not hap hazard but rather very orchestrated Therefore many decisions that we make become life determining In todays society we are lead to think that all accomplishments have to be material With this kind of thinking we can easily see how a person can become so limited in terms of growth and development and a non contributor to the positive development of human society as a whole Many are influenced by the all pervasiveness of the media which contrary to what those in media would have us believe media is not art mimicking life but rather it helps to set the trends of life We see many people with lots of money especially those in the field of entertainment with little or no vision reach their peak in the early stages of their development and then suddenly crash as a result of the trials of life Still others who desire to have these material accomplishments although never rise to that level still they see it as their lifes goal and in their quest for it they use illegal methods which eventually leaves them dead in the streets or locked up behind bars for a good deal of their young lives Then there are those who continue to struggle to make ends meet and those who do manage to make it up the higher end of the economic ladder Too many of these tend to lose their identity because they have been lead to believe that the goal for the African American community is voting rights or integration and once these goals are achieved then the struggle is over As a consequence of this kind of thinking as African Americans we still see ourselves at the bottom of American society Not only here in America but around the world as well It is unfortunate

John Walker - A Man for the 21st Century Robert Harrison,2004-09 Pastor teacher civil rights leader ecumenist social justice pioneer urban missionary relief worker statesman John Walker was all of these and more As both the first African American accepted to study at Virginia Theological Seminary and to serve as a Master at St Paul s School John later rose to Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington D C where he left his mark on presidents world leaders and countless others

A History of the World from the 20th to the 21st Century John Ashley Soames Grenville,2005 Provides a comprehensive survey of the key events and personalities of this period Race in the 21st Century John Hartigan (Jr.),2015 What is the state of race relations in the U S Are we making progress toward ending racial discrimination and prejudice What exactly does race mean In Race in the 21st Century Ethnographic Approaches Second Edition John Hartigan Jr takes an anthropological look at such questions by introducing students to the study of race through qualitative methods In the first text to take an explicitly ethnographic approach Hartigan summarizes and explains the current state of social science knowledge on race in the U S motivating students to think through essential questions about race in relation to their own lives In contrast with many texts Race in the 21st Century focuses not on essential differences between racial or ethnic groups but rather on the commonalities Hartigan concentrates on the particular contexts in which people actively engage and respond to racial meanings and identities In this way he encourages readers to think critically about the meaning of race The second edition of Race in the 21st Century features a new chapter Postracial America which examines contentious arguments about whether or how race still matters in the U S today It engages students fully in the important question of what postracial America might mean or look like

American Military Life in the 21st Century Eugenia L. Weiss,Carl Andrew Castro,2018-11-16 A comprehensive guide to the lives and experiences of military service members veterans and their families in the United States today with special emphasis given to those of the post 9 11 era This reference work provides detailed information on the issues U S service members face both stateside and during deployments overseas Issues covered include relations with family substance use housing educational and job training opportunities post traumatic stress disorder and other health issues and experiences of women sexual minorities and ethnic racial minorities in the armed services This set also examines major issues related to military service for people close to the men and women who serve our country such as spouses or partners children and parents grappling with such issues as single parenthood during deployment and bereavement at the loss of a loved one Finally this set is a valuable resource for people seeking a greater understanding of the issues that confront some military service members and veterans from chronic health problems to economic vulnerability to suicide to incarceration The two volumes are written in a comprehensive yet succinct and accessible style by experts familiar with the latest trends and findings      Making Citizens Beth C. Rubin,2012 Can social studies classrooms be effective makers of citizens if much of what occurs in these classrooms does little to prepare young people to participate in the civic and political life of our democracy Making Citizens illustrates how social studies can recapture its civic purpose through an approach that incorporates meaningful civic learning into middle and high school classrooms The book explains why social studies teachers particularly those working in diverse and urban areas should infuse civic education into their teaching and outlines how this can be done effectively Directed at both pre service and in service social studies teachers and designed for easy integration into social studies methods courses this book follows students and teachers in social studies classrooms as they experience a new approach to the traditional history oriented social studies curriculum using themes essential questions discussion writing current events and action research to explore enduring civic questions Following the experiences of three teachers working at three diverse high schools Beth C Rubin considers how social studies classrooms might become places where young people study ponder discuss and write about relevant civic questions while they learn history She draws upon the latest sociocultural theories on youth civic identity development to describe a field tested approach to civic education that takes into consideration the classroom and curricular constraints faced by new teachers

Community Wealth Building and the Reconstruction of American Democracy Melody C. Barnes,Corey D.B. Walker,Thad M. Williamson,2020-10-30 How can we create and sustain an America that never was but should be How can we build a robust multiracial democracy in which everyone is valued and everyone possesses political economic and social capital How can democracy become a meaningful way of life for all citizens By critically probing these questions the editors of Community Wealth Building and the Reconstruction of American Democracy seize the opportunity to bridge the gap between our democratic aspirations and our current reality      Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents ,1999      Military
