Grundy Z. Leatherberry Nancy Winniford, 2023-12-06 Have you ever wondered what life was like for young women a century and a half ago Or wished your life had more adventure Or at least some adventure Have you ever wished you could travel far away and try new lifestyles Do you enjoy stories about real life struggles with a twist of humor If you can say yes to any of the above questions this book is for you Join Mz Grundy on her journey to experience all the adventure she can find as she strikes out on her own and travels alone across the United States in 1875 on her way to her first job as a prairie schoolteacher In this first book of her series Mz Grundy reaches Chicago Illinois in her pursuit of excitement On the way she tries new exploits such as riding on the back of a camel Her mettle is tested when she careens down train tracks ten feet above street level When Mz Grundy finds herself in the gigantic metropolitan city of New York surrounded by pressing crowds of people and pigs in the streets she perseveres in her dream despite the discomfort of feeling as though she is a polar bear in a desert In her quest for new experiences this naive young woman faces some terrific obstacles but she learns and grows as she bravely overcomes her fears and forges ahead Her story is told with mirth and warmth making her a young heroine with whom we can all relate Come along and join her as she conquers her fears and advances into new territory     Waterloo 1815: The British Army's Day of Destiny Gregory Fremont-Barnes, 2014-11-03 Writing to his mother the day after the fighting Captain Thomas Wildman of the 7th Hussars described a victory so splendid important that you may search the annals of history in vain for its parallel Little wonder for Waterloo was widely recognised even in its immediate wake as one of the most decisive battles in history after more than twenty years of uninterrupted conflict this single day's encounter finally put paid to French aspirations for European hegemony The culminating point of the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars Waterloo also witnessed levels of determination and bravery by both sides which far exceeded anything experienced by the veterans of Wellington's recent campaigns in Spain and Portugal. Indeed it was that unconquerable spirit which left over 50 000 men dead on the field of battle and tens of thousands of others wounded. This thoroughly researched and highly detailed account of one of history's greatest human dramas looks first at the wider strategic picture before focusing on the tactical roles played by individual British units, all meticulously examined with the benefit of an extensive array of hitherto unexploited primary sources which reveal the battlefield experience of officers and soldiers as never before. Refusing simply to repeat the same unchallenged accounts and to commit the same errors of previous historians, this work relies exclusively on hundreds of first-hand accounts by men of all ranks and from practically every British regiment and corps present on that fateful day to provide a fresh and revised perspective on one of the most pivotal events of modern times.

Bridging the Gap, Breaching Barriers Mary Carol Cloutier, 2021-03-04

From its very beginning in June 1842 the Protestant Mission in Gabon included men and women of African descent: African Americans, Americo Liberians and West Africans, all teachers and advanced students from the Cape Palmas Liberia Mission who transferred with the mission to its new location on the Gaboon estuary. All came voluntarily and wholeheartedly. They served as teachers, evangelists, preachers and printers, building the early foundation of Christianity in Gabon. Many eventually returned to their homelands but others stayed for the duration of their lives, assimilating into the local community. This book celebrates the contribution of persons of African descent who served with the mission from 1834 until 1891, a time of complex and controversial race relations in America which seeped into mission relations overseas. Private missionary correspondence and journals reveal the interrelationships, roles and contributions of these individuals and also the underlying perceptions of nationality, race and gender. One must grieve the injustices evident in the stories yet marvel at the giftedness, faith, determination and commitment of those who served, often with no official recognition. I introduce you to Mr B V R James, Lavinia Sneed, Charity Sneed, Menkel Mary Harding and others; may their stories inspire you.
