Monitor Business Directory ,2004 The National Council for Higher Education and the Growth of the University Sub-sector in Uganda, 20022012 A.B.K. Kasozi,2016-12-29 The National Council for Higher Education NCHE and the Growth of the University Sub sector in Uganda 2002 2012 narrates the experience of the Ugandan NCHE in the establishment development and regulation of higher education institutions in Uganda from 2002 to 2012 In this period student numbers in higher education institutions increased from about 65 000 to some 200 000 and university institutions from about ten to more than triple the number The book discusses the role of a regulatory agency in the delivery of higher education the relations of universities and colleges with such an agency its impact on developing university capacities and leadership in creating and refining higher education ideas The experience of Ugandas regulatory agency the NCHE in those ten years should help both the Ugandan and other African countries higher education stakeholders in sharing lessons learned from this one case study The author sees the roles of regulatory agencies as vital in the initial stages of building a higher education sub sector and in periods of system transitions such as the current journey from elite to mass systems but is of the view that the university remains the home of knowledge creation dissemination and its application in society Telephone Directory Uganda Uganda Posts & Telecommunications Corporation,1998 Evaluation of the Norad Fellowship Programme Stein Hansen,2005 Uganda Confidential ,2001 A Handbook on the State of the Media in Uganda Rose Mary Kemigisha,1998 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard) Uganda. Parliament,2012 University Community Engagement and Lifelong Learning Julia Preece,2017-07-13 This book offers a conceptual re think of how university community engagement functions as a lifelong learning resource for communities While having a specific focus on the South African context it has important implications for other universities which are concerned with their communities and makes a compelling argument for the university as a public good in spite of current trends towards marketization and commodification of higher education The book draws on a theoretical framework of capabilities asset based community development and the adult learning concept of dialogue to propose a model whereby the boundary walls of the university become metaphorically porous so that community members feel free to interact with the university as equal members of society A historical outline of African universities is provided as well as an exploration of the evolution of terms for community engagement service learning and learning cities and an examination of the policy and practice implications for the ideological model of a porous university Cameroon Life ,1991 Uganda Health Bulletin ,2001 Modernization of University Education in Uganda P.
