Inspired by Jacques Rancière's Ten Theses on Politics and work by Hannah Arendt, Stanley Cavell, and Roland Barthes, Davide Panagia offers conceptual provocations that emphasize the sense of conviction one has when facing the frictions of aesthetic experience. Rooted in varied and variable experiences of border crossings, Panagia invites readers to reflect on the relational practices that appearances engender. Forerunners Ideas First is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital publications. A Third University Is Possible la paperson, 2017-06-01. A Third University Is Possible unravels the intimate relationship between the more than 200 US land grant institutions, American settler colonialism, and contemporary university expansion. Author la paperson cracks open uncanny connections between Indian boarding schools, Black education, and missionary schools in Kenya, and between the Department of Homeland Security and the University of California. Central to la paperson's discussion is the scyborg, a decolonizing agent of technological subversion. Drawing parallels to Third Cinema and Black filmmaking assemblages, A Third University Is Possible ultimately presents new ways of using language to develop a framework for hotwiring university machines to the practical work of decolonization. Forerunners Ideas First is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital publications. A Billion Black Anthropocenes or None Kathryn Yusoff, 2018-11-02. Rewriting the origin stories of the Anthropocene. No geology is neutral, writes Kathryn Yusoff. Tracing the color line of the Anthropocene, A Billion Black Anthropocenes or None examines how the grammar of geology is foundational to establishing the extractive economies of subjective life and the earth under colonialism and slavery. Yusoff initiates a transdisciplinary conversation between feminist black theory, geography, and the earth sciences, addressing the politics of the Anthropocene within the context of race, materiality, deep time, and the afterlives of geology. Forerunners is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital works. The End of Man Joanna Zylińska, 2018-03-20. Debugging the Anthropocene's insistence on apocalyptic tropes. Where the Anthropocene has become linked to an apocalyptic narrative, and where this narrative carries a widespread escapist belief that salvation will come from a supernatural elsewhere, Joanna Zylińska has a different take. The End of Man rethinks the prophecy of the end of humans, interrogating the rise in populism around the world and offering an ethical vision of a feminist counterapocalypse which challenges many of the masculinist and technicist solutions to our planetary crises. The book is

Fifty Years of "The Battle of Algiers" Sohail Daulatzai, 2016-09-09 The Battle of Algiers a 1966 film that poetically captures Algerian resistance to French colonial occupation is widely considered one of the greatest political films of all time With an artistic defiance that matched the boldness of the anticolonial struggles of the time it was embraced across the political spectrum from leftist groups like the Black Panther Party and the Palestine Liberation Organization to right wing juntas in the 1970s and later the Pentagon in 2003 With a philosophical nod to Frantz Fanon Sohail Daulatzai demonstrates that tracing the film's afterlife reveals a larger story about how dreams of freedom were shared and crushed in the fifty years since its release As the War on Terror expands and the threat of the Muslim looms The Battle of Algiers is more than an artifact of the past it's a prophetic testament to the present and a cautionary tale of an imperial future as perpetual war has been declared on permanent unrest Forerunners Ideas First is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital publications Written between fresh ideas and finished books Forerunners draws on scholarly work initiated in notable blogs social media conference plenaries journal articles and the synergy of academic exchange This is gray literature publishing where intense thinking change and speculation take place in scholarship
