Africa: Mother of "Western Civilization." Yosef Ben-Jochannan, 1971 Understanding the African Philosophical Concept Behind the Diagram of the Law of Opposites Yosef ben- Jochannan, 2005 Published while teaching at the Africana Studies and Research Center at Cornell University this work showcases Dr Ben as a mentor and gives readers a sample of his interactive teaching style He combines in this book a dynamic lecture on the Diagram of the Law of Opposites along with essays contributed by his graduate students on aspects of the same topic This collaboration between student and teacher distinguishes this volume from the many other books by this noted activist historian Got My Own Song to Sing Jay

Thomas Willis, 2020-06-01 I describe in this book how the Post Traumatic Slave Syndrome has historically and currently affected my own family and subsequently many other Black families The book suggests that pre slavery Middle Passage post slavery and modern day conditions contributed to the Black family s pathologies It goes on to demonstrate the manifestation of some of these specific problems in my family that has been caused by these historical conditions It shows how the past continues to write on the slate of today It also implies that the Post Traumatic Slave Syndrome will continue to affect the Black family in the distant future History in Black Yaacov Shavit, 2013-11-12 The development of Afrocentric historical writing is explored in this study which traces this recording of history from the Hellenistic Roman period to the 19th century Afrocentric writers are depicted as searching for the unique primary source of culture from one period to the next Such passing on of cultural traits from the ancient model from the classical period to the origin of culture in Egypt and Africa is shown as being a product purely of creative history Black World/Negro Digest , 1973-07 Founded in 1943 Negro Digest later Black World was the publication that launched Johnson Publishing During the most turbulent years of the civil rights movement Negro Digest Black World served as a critical vehicle for political thought for supporters of the movement The Black Hebrews and the Black Christ Aylmer Von Fleischer, Dedicated to the One and only God from whom all blessings flow This updated book tells it all from the creation of Adam to Black Abraham Moses Jacob the invasion of the homelands of the Black Hebrew Israelites Jews by the Assyrians Neo Babylonians Persians Greeks Romans Muslims and others the brutalization of the Black Jews and their near decimation as well as the story of the Khazars who are today considered to be the real Jews Mention is also made of the historical Black Jesus This book is illustrated with ancient images of Biblical characters Cultural Genocide in the Black and African Studies Curriculum Yosef Ben-Jochannan, 2004 As Black and African Studies programs emerged in the early 1970 s the question of who has the right and responsibility to determine course content and curriculum also emerged In 1972 Dr Ben s critique on this subject was published as Cultural Genocide in The Black and African Studies Curriculum It has been republished several times since then and its topic has remained timely and unresolved

Pan-African Education John K. Marah, 2017-08-09 This book makes a critical contribution to the study of pan Africanism and the education of African people for continental African citizenship It is a unique endeavor in that it intersects the social history of pan Africanism and the education of African people at a global level and provides reflections from a multidisciplinary perspective on the urgency for continental pan Africanism educational system in order to produce a more renaissance African for the twenty first century Arguing that Pan African Education is a mass based educational system that will craft a pan African African personality John Marah calls for integrated African school systems and curriculum changes conducive to larger social integration and institutionalized pan African educational processes The establishments of pan African Teachers Colleges intensive language institutes pan African literature courses the training of African military and police forces the use of music sports media and other extra curricular activities the hidden curriculum etc are viewed as essential aspects in the socialization of a pan African character or personality Pan African Education is an essential read for students and scholars of Pan Africanism African and Africana Studies and Black Studies

Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien L. Joseph, 2020-04-15 In Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien Joseph provides a fresh and careful reexamination of Haiti's intellectual history by focusing on the ideas and writings of five prominent thinkers and public intellectuals Toussaint Louverture Joseph Antenor Firmin Jacques Roumain Dantes Bellegarde and Jean Price Mars The book articulates a twofold argument First of all Haiti has produced a strong intellectual tradition from the revolutionary era to the postcolonial present and that Haitian thought is not homogeneous and monolithic Joseph puts forth the idea that the general interweaving themes of rhetoric the race concept race vindication universal emancipation religious pluralism secular humanism the particular and the universal and cosmopolitanism are representative of Haiti's intellectual tradition Secondly the book also contends that Haitian intellectuals have produced a religious discourse in the twentieth century that could be phrased religious metissage The religious ideas of these thinkers have been shaped by various forces ideologies religious traditions and philosophical schools In the same way the religious experience of the Haitian people should be understood in terms of conflicting heterodox and pluralistic manifestations of religious piety as the people in Haiti reacted to the crisis of slavery Western colonialism and imperialism and the arrogance of race in modernity in their striving to reposition themselves within the framework of universal and human metanarratives The book departs from the dominant contemporary Vodou scholarship that is often characteristic of North American and Western studies on the religious life of the Haitian people and Haitian thinkers

America the Philosophical Carlin Romano, 2013-04-23 This bold insightful book argues that America today towers as the most philosophical culture in the history of the world an unprecedented marketplace for truth and debate With verve and keen intelligence Carlin Romano Pulitzer Prize finalist award winning book critic and professor of philosophy takes on the widely held belief that the United States is an anti intellectual country Instead he provides a richly reported overview of American thought arguing that ordinary Americans see through phony philosophical justifications faster than anyone else and that the best of our thinkers ditch artificial academic debates for fresh intellectual enterprises Along the way Romano seeks to topple philosophy's most fiercely admired hero Socrates asserting that it is Isocrates the nearly forgotten Greek philosopher who rejected certainty whom Americans should honor as their intellectual ancestor America the Philosophical is a rebellious tour de force that both celebrates our country's unparalleled intellectual energy and promises to bury some of our most hidebound cultural clichés

Black Fathers Michael E. Connor, Joseph White, 2011-06-02 This book offers a broader more positive picture of African American fathers Featuring case studies of African descended fathers this edited volume brings to life the achievements and challenges of being a black father in America Leading scholars and practitioners provide unique insight into this understudied population Short sighted social policies which do not encourage father involvement are critically examined and the value of father engagement is promoted The problems associated with the absence of a father are also explored The second edition features an increased emphasis on the historical issues confronting African descended fathers the impact of health issues on Black fathers and their children the need for therapeutic interventions to aid in the healing of fathers and their children the impact of an Afrikan centered fathering approach and the need for research which considers systemic problems confronting African American fathers community focused models that provide new ideas for re connecting absent fathers learning tools including reflective questions and a conclusion in each chapter and more theory and research throughout the book Part I provides a historical overview of African descended fathers including their strengths and shortcomings over the years Next contributors share their personal stories including one from a communal father working with underserved youth and two others that highlight the impact of absent fathers Then the research on father daughter relationships is examined including the impact of father absence on daughters and on gender identity This section concludes with a discussion of serving adolescents in the foster care system Part II focuses on the importance of a two parent home communal fathering and equalitarian households Cultural implications and barriers to relationships are also explored This section concludes with a discussion of the struggles Black men face with role definitions The book concludes with a discussion of the impact of adoption and health issues on Black fathers and their children and the need for more effective therapeutic interventions that include a perspective centered in the traditions and cultures of Afrika in learning to become a father The final chapter offers an intervention model to aid in fatherhood An ideal supplementary text for courses on fathers and fathering introduction to the family parenting African American families men men and masculinity Black studies race and ethnic relations and family issues taught in a variety of departments the book also appeals to social service providers policy makers and clergy who work with community institutions

Black Book Publishers in the United States Donald Franklin Joyce, 1991-10-14 Since the second decade of the nineteenth century there have been black owned book publishers in the United States addressing the special concerns of black people in ways that other book publishers have not This is the first work to treat extensively the individual publishing histories of these firms Though largely ignored by historians the story of these publishers as documented in this study reveals fascinating details of literary history as well as previously unknown facts about the contribution of blacks to Western civilization Donald Franklin Joyce offers comprehensive profiles of forty six publishing companies selected for inclusion through an examination of major bibliographic works book advertisements periodical literature and business directories Each profile contains information on the company s publishing history books and other publications that were released information sources about the firm other titles issued libraries holding titles produced by the publisher and officers and addresses where appropriate Entries are arranged alphabetically by the publisher name while an appendix presents a geographic listing of the firms and an index offers author title and subject access This work will be an important resource for students scholars and researchers interested in cultural and intellectual black history as well as public and academic libraries seeking specific information on individual publishing companies

Globalization and the Digital Divide , Problematizing Local Indigenous Community Research Allucia L. Shokane, Kelly J. Gross, 2021-12-30 This book deliberates on developments related to Knowledge Pathing Multi Inter and Trans Disciplining in Social Sciences The book explores the value of this vexed concept in advancing the course for multi inter and trans disciplinary perspectives methodologies theories and epistemologies of knowledge pathing The discourse on knowledge pathing remains critical in advancing debates and dialogues in the humanities and social sciences spaces of research and studies This book makes a significant contribution to the scholarly understanding of indigenous knowledge research by focusing on problematising local indigenous community research from Afro sensed perspectives The field of indigenous knowledge research and higher education in Africa is complex Yet across the continent higher education has been the sector to least embrace Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS or regard indigenous science as a legitimate source of inspiration for the development of youth and local communities Higher education institutions and local indigenous communities should thus generate knowledge and power through research On the other hand higher education researchers should use their research processes and skills for cross beneficiation when engaging local indigenous communities This book embodies the current discourse on decolonisation and the use of indigenous knowledge in research and is intended for research specialists in the field of indigenous knowledge systems

Jesus-Yahusha Spiritual and Racial Identity from Dark-Skinned to Lighter-Skinned From African to European Descent Dr. Jonathan M. Hudson, LCSW, Ph.D., Psychologist, 2025-01-29 The writing of this book has provided a substantial amount of information that the Bible is not only Black history according to previously read biblical text The Bible has been Black history since the creation of mankind starting with the book of Genesis from the creation of the first Black dark skinned man created by God Yahweh He named Adam Historical biblical text also informs us that Adam and his wife Eve were created in the land of Africa Eden Akebulan From this study we have discovered that a significant majority of African Americans within the Americas and other regions of the world are true descendants of the ancient Black Hebrew Israelites recorded in Biblical text through the lineage of Shem Abraham Isaac Jacob Israel Isn t it exciting to know your racial and cultural identity in who you are A true descendant of the ancient Black dark skinned Hebrew Israelites belonging to the tribes of Israel and Judah marked a chosen people belonging to God Yahweh
