Africa Since The Past Of The Present:

Africa since 1940 Frederick Cooper, 2019-07-04 A history of decolonisation and independence this text helps students understand how Africa's global position has emerged since 1940 South Africa, Past, Present and Future Tony Binns, Alan Lester, Etienne Nel, 2014-09-25 This is the first book to combine a discussion of post apartheid development initiatives with an extended historical analysis of South Africa's dynamic race class gender and ethnic identities Bringing together the research of an historical geographer and two development geographers the book enables us to locate the post apartheid transition in a broad historical and spatial perspective Within this perspective the limitations as well as the achievements of South Africa's current transformation are highlighted Dynamics of Forest Ecosystems in Central Africa During the Holocene:

Past - Present - Future J. Runge, 2014-04-21 Bringing together experts from several disciplines this volume collects the best papers presented at the international workshop on Environmental and Cultural Change in West and Central Africa held in Cameroon March 2006 Problems of Holocene and Late Pleistocene modifications of the rain forest savanna fringe and their possible influence on cultural innovations are discussed This is an important resource for those concerned with tropical forests and related development problems of third world countries It is an excellent source of information for new original manuscripts on the topic of Late Pleistocene and Holocene landscape evolution in the lower latitudes of Africa Africa in the World Frederick Cooper, 2014-03-24 Of the many pathways out of empire why did African leaders follow the one that led to the nation state whose dangers were recognized by Africans in the 1940s and 50s Frederick Cooper revisits a long history in which Africans were empire builders the objects of colonization and participants in events that gave rise to global capitalism

Religious Plurality in Africa Jacob K. Olupona, Sulayman S. Nyang, 2013-03-01 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series

Political Science in Africa, 2023-12-28 Bringing together African and international scholars this book gives an account of the present state of the discipline of political science in Africa generating insights into its present and future trajectories and assessing the freedom with which it is practiced Tackling subjects including the decolonization of the discipline political scientists as public intellectuals and the teaching of political science this diverse range of perspectives paints a detailed picture of the impact and relevance of the political science discipline on the continent during the struggles for democratization and the influence it continues to exert today Management in Africa Terri R. Lituchy, Betty Jane Punnett, Bill Buenar Pupilampu, 2013 This book offers a comprehensive look at the current literatures and research based on empirical data from across different countries in Africa. It focuses on the work of leading scholars of management in and around Africa and the African Context exploring whether we can at this point refer to African Management as an emerging and distinct stream in the scholarly discourse in management. The main themes are macro and micro issues of Management in Africa each chapter illustrating the historical or traditional view of Management in Africa versus the newer western business management perspective. This book presents current in depth rigorous research and identifies future research and propositions enabling scholars and students to gain an in depth understanding of management as it is evolving and practiced in Africa.

A Hidden History of Youth Development in South Africa Margaret Perrow, 2021-03-15 Drawing on two decades of interviews and ethnographic fieldwork 1998-2018 this book presents a unique and multi faceted history of youth development in South Africa through the lens of a South African non governmental organization NGO prominent in youth development from the mid 1980s until 2008. The book weaves history ethnography and discourse analysis to contextualize the Joint Enrichment Project JEP in the politics and history of South African education. It examines JEP's role leading up to and during South Africa's transition to democracy its work and influence in post apartheid South Africa and the continued relevance of its legacy to contemporary initiatives seeking to address youth development and social justice. While JEP repeatedly repositioned itself as an organization from fighting the effects of apartheid on young people to becoming a potential partner with the new African National Congress ANC led government its most significant role may have been to reposition people. After tracing JEP's twenty year history the book focuses on the participants in a 1998 Youth Work Scheme exploring their learning experiences and the program's immediate impact on their lives. It then revisits these participants twenty years later in 2018 analyzing their life trajectories after JEP and comparing them with the life trajectories of former JEP staff over the same period shedding light on broader patterns of socio economic reproduction and change in the country. The book concludes with a discussion of a perennial paradox facing youth development institutions. This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of education international development anthropology and African studies.

From Africa to Zen Robert Solomon, Kathleen M. Higgins, 2003-01-01 In the second edition of this groundbreaking text in non Western philosophy fifteen experts introduce some of the great philosophical traditions in the world. The dozen essays collected here unveil exciting sophisticated philosophical traditions that are too often neglected in the western world. The contributors include the leading scholars in their fields but they write for students coming to these concepts for the first time. Building on revisions and updates to the original essays on China India Japan and the Americas this new edition also considers three philosophical traditions for the first time Jewish Buddhist and South Pacific MOori philosophy.
