Afrikaans Memo 2november Paper 1:

Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy. The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages. Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools. The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully. The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience.

Apartheid's Reluctant Uncle Thomas Borstelmann, 1993 Borstelmann history Cornell U brings to light the neglected history of Washington's strong but hushed backing for the white supremacist National Party government that won power in South Africa in 1948 and for its formal establishment of apartheid. Selections from the Smuts Papers: Volume 5, September 1919-November 1934 Jan Christiaan Smuts, 1966 Volumes V VI and VII complete the series of selections from the Smuts Papers. They cover the period from August 1919 when Smuts succeeded Botha as prime minister of the Union of South Africa until his death in September 1950. The selection is divided into six parts each with a short introduction. All the documents are annotated and those in Dutch or Afrikaans are provided with translations. There are over six hundred biographical notes. Smuts's stature as a world statesman, his intimate concern with the problems of European and Commonwealth politics and his central position in South African affairs place his private papers among the most important collections of their kind. Volume V covers the period from 1919 to 1934 years of crisis for Smut's own child the League of Nations and in South Africa a time which saw confrontations on colour questions and adjustments that led to party fusion.

Kleio ,1991 Language in South Africa Victor Webb,2002-08-08 Language in South Africa LiSA debates the role of language and language planning in the reconstruction development and transformation of post apartheid democratic South Africa The 1996 constitution of South Africa is founded on the political philosophy of pluralism and is directed at promoting democratic values equity and non discrimination human rights national unity and the development of all the country s communities The question asked in LiSA is how language planning can contribute towards the attainment of these national ideals Set against the language political realities of the country the a symmetric power relations between the languages the striking differences in the structural functional and symbolic adaptation of the official languages and the many language related problems in the country it debates the role of language in state administration national integration educational development and economic development The volume concludes with a discussion of language development and language management

The Politics of Ethnic Nationalism Joanne L. Duffy,2006 The Politics of Ethnic Nationalism is the first significant local study of National Party and Afrikaner politics By focusing on Stellenbosch as a university and a town the book extends our understanding of the complex interaction between the GNP HNP and various organisations of the radical right The book illustrates at a local level and using detailed materials how identity was constructed through a process of excluding some English Jew Coloured and including others In addition it examines the ways in which Afrikaner nationalists of all shades of political opinion conceptualised their relationships with English speaking South Africans and the ways that the rhetoric of republicanism and anti imperialism were employed by nationalists The study exposes the complex and Byzantine nature of Afrikaner nationalist politics revealing the multiplicity of identities and ideologies co existing within Afrikanerdom the cross cutting allegiances and overlapping loyalties It reveals further the extent to which branches of nationalist organisations were fragmented and the extent to which even individuals could embrace contradictory ideologies

Shadow of Liberation Vishnu Padayachee,Robert Van Niekerk,2019-10-01 Shadow of Liberation explores the intricate twists turns contestations and compromises of ANC economic and social policymaking with a focus on the transition era of the 1990 s and the early years of democracy With the damning revelations by the Zondo Commission of Inquiry into State Capture on the massive corruption of the South African body politic the timing of this book could not be more relevant South Africans need to confront the economic and social policy choices that the liberation movement made and to see how these decisions may have facilitated the conditions for corruption to emerge and flourish Answers are needed Padayachee and van Niekerk focus their attention on the primary question of how and why the ANC given its historical anti inequality re distributive stance come in the 1990s to such a dramatic turn around and move towards an essentially market dominated approach Were they pushed or did they go willingly What role if any did Western governments and international financial institutions play And what of the role of the late apartheid state and South African business Did leaders and comrades sell out the ANC s emancipatory policy vision Shadow of Liberation tries to provide answers to these questions drawing on the best available primary archival evidence as well as extensive interviews with key protagonists across the political non government and business spectrum The authors argue that the ANC s emancipatory policy agenda was broadly to establish a social democratic welfare state upholding rights of social citizenship However its economic policy framework to realise this emancipatory mission was either non existent or egregiously misguided     Language in South Africa Victor N.

Webb,2002-01-01 A discussion of the role which language or more properly languages can perform in the reconstruction and development of South Africa The approach followed in this book is characterised by a numbers of features its aim is to be factually based and theoretically informed     Language, Ethnic Identity and the State William Safran,J.A.

Laponce,2014-02-04 This new study powerfully asserts the pivotal importance of the interplay between language and ethnicity which is often underestimated as a component for political stability These leading scholars present five key case studies of South Africa Algeria Canada Latvia and Senegal All five countries are multilingual nations where language has been a central political issue that has challenged their unity and stability These studies are underpinned by two general comparative and theoretical discussions which analyse how scholars consider social class and economic factors to be the primary sources for political cohesion or of malcontent with the system and the new avenues opened by a focus on issues of langauge This book will be of great interest to all students and scholars of linguistics language politics and sociology This is a special issue of the leading journal Nationalism and Ethnic Politics     AF Press Clips ,1972     Educamus ,1980 emigration from the United Kingdom A state assisted emigration scheme for ex servicemen and ex servicewomen operating from 1919 to 1922 was followed by an Empire Settlement Act passed in 1922 This made significant British state funding available for assisted emigration and overseas land settlement in British Empire countries Foremost amongst the achievements of the high minded imperial projects was the free passage scheme for ex servicemen and women which operated between 1919 and 1922 under the auspices of the Oversea Settlement Committee Cheap passages were considered as one of the prime factors in stimulating the flow of migration particularly in the case of single women The research represented here makes a significant contribution to the social histories of these states as well as of the United Kingdom
