 Cambodia Howard J. De Nike, John Quigley, Kenneth J. Robinson, 2012-05-23 The Khmer Rouge held power in Cambodia from 1975 to 1979 and aggressively pursued a policy of radical social reform that resulted in the deaths of hundreds of thousands of Cambodians through mass executions and physical privation In January 1979 the government was overthrown by former Khmer Rouge functionaries with substantial backing from the army of Vietnam In August of that year a special court the People s Revolutionary Tribunal was constituted to try two of the Khmer Rouge government s most powerful leaders Pol Pot and Ieng Sary The charge against them was genocide as it was defined in the United Nation s genocide convention of 1948 At the time both men were in the Cambodian jungle leading the Khmer Rouge in a struggle to regain power they were therefore tried in absentia Genocide in Cambodia assembles documents from this historic trial and contains extensive reports from the People s Revolutionary Tribunal The book opens with essays that discuss the nature of the primary documents and places the trial in its historical legal and political context The documents are divided into three parts those relating to the establishment of the tribunal those used as evidence including statements of witnesses investigative reports of mass grave sites expert opinions on the social and cultural impact of the actions of Pol Pot and Ieng Sary and accounts from the foreign press and finally the record of the trial beginning with the prosecutor s indictment and ending with the concluding speeches by the attorneys for the defense and prosecution The trial of Pol Pot and Ieng Sary was the world s first genocide trial based on United Nations s policy as well as the first trial of a head of government on a human rights related charge This documentary record is significant for the history of Cambodia and it will be of the highest importance as well to the international legal and human rights communities Theorizing Transitional Justice Claudio Corradetti, Nir Eisikovits, 2016-02-17 This book

Designing Knowledge Economies for Disaster

Resilience Pamela Waldron-Moore, 2023-11-10 Disaster research has been studied from many angles seldom targeting its implications for vulnerable territories in Africa Entities most subject to the effects of climate change are often undeveloped and located in disadvantaged regions Post disaster communities need to scrutinize the social political economic and cultural structures that stagnate sustainable growth Acknowledging that low economic development and high climate costs cannot coexist this collected volume interrogates the challenge for disaster prone territories to determine strategies for restructuring and redesigning their environment This book proposes the creation of knowledge economies whereby empowered communities may produce innovative knowledge translatable across the African diaspora

In Defence of War Nigel Biggar, 2013-09-12 Against the domination of moral deliberation by rights talk In Defence of War asserts that belligerency can be morally justified even while it is tragic and morally flawed Recovering the early Christian tradition of just war thinking Nigel Biggar argues in favour of aggressive war in punishment of grave injustice

Life Laid Bare Jean Hatzfeld, 2013-03-26 A seasoned reporter's powerful necessary account of the Rwandan genocide based on harrowing firsthand testimonies In the late 1990s French author and journalist Jean Hatzfeld made several journeys into the hilly marshy region of the Bugesera one of the areas most devastated by the Rwandan genocide of April 1994 where an average of five out of six Tutsis were hacked to death with machete and spear by their Hutu neighbors and militiamen In the villages of Nyamata and Ntarama Hatzfeld interviewed fourteen survivors of the genocide from orphan teenage farmers to the local social worker For years the survivors had lived in a muteness as enigmatic as the silence of those who survived the Nazi concentration camps In Life Laid Bare they speak for those who are no longer alive to speak for themselves they tell of the deaths of family and friends in the churches and marshes to which they fled and they attempt to account for the reasons behind the Tutsi extermination For many of the survivors life has broken down while for others it has stopped and still others say that it absolutely must go on These horrific accounts of life at the very edge contrast with Hatzfeld's own sensitive and vivid descriptions of Rwanda's villages and countryside in peacetime These voices of courage and resilience exemplify the indomitable human spirit and they remind us of our own moral responsibility to bear witness to these atrocities and to never forget what can come to pass again Winner of the Prix France Culture and the Prix Pierre Mille Life Laid Bare allows us in the author's own words to draw as close as we can get to the Rwandan genocide The Not So Dead People Glenn Fain, 2025-08-01 PSYCHOLOGIST SAM MAXWELL LIVES in a city collapsing under plague paperwork and the weight of its own forgotten dead When the Reborn begin to appear cured of the virus but emptied of feeling Sam takes a job in the morgue chasing answers What begins as cold procedural work in the morgue leads him into locked freezers lost files and whispers no one wants to admit are real THE DEAD ARE RETURNING They watch Some wait And one of them might be his mother As the line between grief and madness thins Sam must confront not just what the virus took but what it left behind THE NOT SO DEAD PEOPLE is a wryly observed meditative descent through identity memory and the quiet horror of resurrection Blending dystopian noir with metaphysical dread it asks what we owe the dead and what they might remember of us
