After The Loving Mills Boon Modern:

Entranced by Story Hugh Crago, 2014-04-24 We live in a world of stories yet few of us pause to ask what stories actually are why we consume them so avidly and what they do for story makers and their audiences This book focuses on the experiences that good stories generate feelings of purposeful involvement elevation temporary loss of self vicarious emotion and relief of tension The author examines what drives writers to create stories and why readers fall under their spell why some children grow up to be writers and how the capacity for creating and comprehending stories develops from infancy right through into old age Entranced by Story applies recent research on brain function to literary examples ranging from the Iliad and Wuthering Heights to Harold and the Purple Crayon providing a groundbreaking exploration of the biological and neurological basis of the literary experience Blending research theory and biographical anecdote the author shows how it is the unique structure of the human brain with its layering of sophisticated cognitive capacities upon archaic emotion driven functions which best explains the mystery of story

Seeking Love in Modern Britain Zoe Strimpel, 2020-03-05 Seeking Love in Modern Britain charts the emergence of the modern British single through an account of the dating industry that sprang up to serve men and women It shows how amid a period of unprecedented sexual and social change the single became a key unisex identity and lifestyle From around 1970 a growing cottage style matchmaking industry in Britain was offering the romantically solo a choice between computer dating firms such as Dateline or Computate introduction agencies and the lonely hearts pages of Private Eye Time Out and others Zoe Strimpel reveals how this rapidly expanding landscape of services was catering to a new breed of single people and how by the late 1990s singleness had become the culturally mainstream wholly expected part of the romantic life cycle that it is today Refuting the widespread idea that the Internet invented modern dating this book uses an eclectic and engaging range of first person accounts and snapshots from the time to show that the story of contemporary romance mediated courtship and singleness began in a time long before Tinder

For Love and Money: the Literary Art of the Harlequin Mills and Boon Romance Laura Vivanco, 2011-01-01 Laura Vivanco's study challenges the idea that Harlequin Mills Boon romances are merely mass produced commodities churned out in accordance with a strict and unchanging formula She argues that many are well written skilfully crafted works and that some are small masterpieces For Love and Money demonstrates the variety that exists beneath the covers of Harlequin Mills Boon romances They range from paranormal romances to novels resembling chick lit and many have addressed serious issues including the plight of post Second World War refugees threats to marine mammals and HIV AIDS The genre draws inspiration from Shakespearean comedies and Austen's novels as well as from other forms of popular culture Laura Vivanco's For Love and Money is an impressive study of the popular fiction of Harlequin Mills and Boon that is a must read for any student of popular fiction and for those who write and love the genre Liz Fielding author of over 50 Harlequin Mills Boon romances Deep learning wide reading and clear thinking are very much in evidence in Vivanco's exploration of HM B A welcome addition to popular romance criticism Professor Pamela Regis author of A Natural History of the Romance Novel Laura Vivanco's analysis of the category romance is both meticulous and inspiring And while Vivanco limits her examples and discussions to category romances by Harlequin Mills Boon and the HQN imprint her application of Frye's mimetic modes begs for expansion to texts and authors across the genre This piece of literary criticism should serve as a template for romance scholars to move from defending the genre to discussing its values and complexity as a literary art Maryan Wherry Journal of Popular Romance Studies

Literature and Culture in Modern Britain: Volume Three Clive Bloom, Gary Day, 2014-06-11 British culture has changed almost beyond recognition since 1956 Angry young men have been displaced by Yuppies Elvis by the Spice Girls and meat and two veg by continental cuisine What is more as the death of Diana Princess of Wales showed the British are now more famous for a trembling lower lip than a stiff upper one This volume the last in the series examines the transformations in literature and culture over the last forty years An introductory essay provides a context for the following chapters by arguing that although there have been significant changes in British life there are also profound continuities It also discusses the rise of theory and its impact on the humanities Each essay in the volume concentrates on a facet of British culture over the last half century from painting to poetry from the seriousness of the novel to the postmodern ironies of the computing age What we get from this selection is not only an informed history of the relations between literature and culture but also a lively sense of cultural change not least of which is the new found relationship between literature and other arts which ushers us into the new millennium
