Robinson,2019-11-26 In The Man Against the Sky: A Book of Poems Edwin Arlington Robinson masterfully intertwines themes of existential struggle isolation and the human condition set against the backdrop of early 20th century America The collection showcases Robinson s hallmark style lyrical yet potent characterized by its nuanced imagery and profound introspection Each poem serves as a meditation on the tension between individual aspiration and societal expectation reflecting the broader modernist movement while maintaining a deeply personal voice that resonates with both melancholy and resilience Robinson a three time Pulitzer Prize winner drew from his own experiences of hardship and alienation navigating personal failures and the influences of his contemporaries Born in 1869 in Head Tide Maine he witnessed the complexities of small town life which became a recurring motif in his work These experiences sharpened his sensitivity towards the emotional landscapes of his characters making their struggles profoundly relatable and ultimately enriching the reader s understanding of the poetic form itself This exemplary collection is highly recommended for those who seek to explore the intricacies of human emotion through a rich yet accessible lens Robinson s insights into despair and hope make The Man Against the Sky an essential read for poetry enthusiasts and those interested in the evolution of American literature

Against a Blackened Sky Jan Steen,2022-01-15 Against a Blackened Sky the story of one man s falling out with organized religion is told by a future observer whose knowledge of history is incomplete Without sanctioned access to historical accounts the storyteller has pieced together an explanation of man s predicament that seems plausible to him His problem is that he cannot accomplish in his own life the virtues that he admires in the subject of his story In his partial understanding he looks back longingly to a time he feels to be simpler than the complex world he lives in The storyteller is a member of the crew who man a lunar based laser The subject of his narrative Colonel Smith was a member of the pioneering crew who laid the foundation for the establishment of that base In Colonel Smith s day a world now past satellite technology became obsolete The need for a moon based laser became desperate in the pursuit of peace and security Through a series of mishaps Colonel Smith is marooned alone on the moon and must endure a year of solitude It is during that time that he is able to rethink and ultimately to redirect his life When at last he is rescued he returns to an Earth that will be profoundly affected by the work he helped to begin on the moon In a world of tightening alternatives man has not lost his battle with technology but rather has surrendered to it It is the storyteller s lament that man has given up without a struggle Should the story of the teller and of his subject seem ill fated and harshness and gloom seem to hang over the tragedy of their lives it is only because the message of hope has been missed The door has been opened and we have stepped through but the door has not closed behind us We might yet step back through close that door from the other side and find another opened to us
