African Queen Sceanario Du Film:

African Queen James Agee, John Huston, 2013-10-15 1915 en Afrique Une soeur missionnaire Rose Sawyer doit descendre un fleuve sur le bateau du trafiquant Charlie Allnutt l'African Queen La descente est dangereuse et se termine entre les mains des Allemands Le couple n'chappera qu'en extremis la pendaison Agee at 100 Michael A.

Lofaro, 2012-02-25 Drawn mainly from the centennial anniversary symposium on James Agee held at the University of Tennessee in the fall of 2009 the essays of Agee at 100 are as diverse in topic and purpose as is Agee's work itself Often devalued during his life by those who thought his breadth a hindrance to greatness Agee's achievements as a poet novelist journalist essayist critic documentarian and screenwriter are now more fully recognized With its use of previously unknown and recently recovered materials as well as established works this groundbreaking new collection is a timely contribution to the resurgence of interest in Agee's significance The essays in this collection range from the scholarly to the personal and all offer insight into Agee's writing his cultural influence and ultimately Agee himself Dwight Garner opens with his reflective essay on Why Agee Matters Several essays present almost entirely new material on Agee Paul Ashdown writes on Agee's book reviews which unlike Agee's film criticism have received scant attention With evidence from two largely unstudied manuscripts Jeffrey Couchman sets the record straight on Agee's contribution to the screenplay for The African Queen and delves as well into his television miniseries screenplay Mr Lincoln John Wranovics treats Agee's lesser known films the documentaries In the Street and The Quiet One and the Filipino epic Genghis Khan Jeffrey J Folks wrestles with Agee's culture of repudiation while James A Crank investigates his perplexing treatment of race in his prose Jesse Graves and Andrew Crooke provide new analyses of Let Us Now Praise Famous Men and Michael A Lofaro and Philip Stogdon both discuss Lofaro's recently restored text of A Death in the Family David Madden closes the collection with his short story Seeing Agee in Lincoln an imagined letter from Agee to his longtime confidante Father Flye The contributors to Agee at 100 utilize materials new and old to reveal the true importance of Agee's range of cultural sensibility and literary ability Film scholars will also find this collection particularly engrossing as will anyone fascinated by the work of the author rightly deemed the sovereign prince of the English language The Woman Chaser Charles Willeford, 2013-08-11 In post World War II Los Angeles a disillusioned used car salesman seeks revenge after his attempt to make the great American film fails miserably Richard Hudson woman chaser and used car salesman has a pimp's awareness of the ways women and men are most vulnerable One day Richard decides to make an ambitious film which turns into a fiasco Enraged he exacts revenge on all who have crossed him Praise for The Woman Chaser A pitilessly hilarious dissection of the American male psyche Chicago Tribune The most eloquently brainy and exacting pulp fiction ever fabricated Village Voice James Agee in Context Michael A. Lofaro, 2023-01-17 It's difficult to overestimate the impact of the many new works by James Agee uncovered and published in the last twenty years These previously unknown primary works have in turn encouraged a parallel explosion of critical evaluation and reevaluation by scholars to which James Agee in Context is the latest contribution This superb collection from well known James Agee scholars features myriad approaches and contexts for understanding the author s fiction poetry journalism and screenwriting The essays bring the reader from the streets of James Agee s New York to travel with the author from Alabama to Hollywood to Havana Contributors explore overlapping and sometimes unique subjects themes and accomplishments or lack thereof in Agee s uncovered works and highlight the diversity of interest that Agee s complete body of work inspires The insightful scholarship on influence examines connections between Agee and Wright Morris Helen Levitt John Dos Passos Ernest Hemingway and Stephen Crane Such juxtapositions serve to illustrate how Agee drew on literary influences as a young man how he used his work as a journalist to craft fiction as he was about to turn thirty and his influence upon others The volume concludes with three poems and a short story by Agee all previously unknown It seems astonishing that so much remains to be discovered about this protean author his materials and his circle Yet the recovery and analysis of neglected texts and information mined from newspapers and magazines proves the extent to which Agee kept his mind and his work as he himself put it patiently concentrated upon the essential quietudes of the human soul
