Gillis,2015-09-16 The Aermotor Windmill Company which commenced operations in Chicago in 1888 is the nation s sole remaining full time manufacturer of water pumping machines The company s imprint on rural America particularly across the West is still visible today in the tens of thousands of its windmills that bring water to the earth s surface Still Turning is the first book to explore the rise of the American windmill through the experience of this important company Aermotor founder La Verne Noyes and engineer Thomas Perry developed and perfected the all metal wind pump in the 1880s Within a decade the mathematical windmill began to dominate the market Aermotor continued to expand and innovate The ruggedness and simplicity of the American mechanical windmill has allowed it to outlast many newer water pumping technologies over the years with minimal maintenance and oversight Christopher C Gillis traces this story and more from the early days of the company to Aermotor s present day relevance as it continues to produce its iconic windmills Still Turning is a significant contribution not only to the history of wind power but also to the history of American enterprise South Africa, Greece, Rome Grant Parker,2017-08-31 How have ancient Greece and Rome intersected with South African histories This book canvasses architecture literature visual arts and historical memory Some of the most telling manifestations of classical reception in South Africa have been indirect for example neo classical architecture or retellings of mythical stories Far from being the mere handmaiden of colonialism and later apartheid classical antiquity has enabled challenges to the South African establishment and provided a template for making sense of cross cultural encounters Though access to classical education has been limited many South Africans black and white have used classical frames of reference and drawn inspiration from the ancient Greeks and Romans While classical antiquity may seem antithetical to post apartheid notions of heritage it deserves to be seen in this light Museums historical sites and artworks up to the present day reveal juxtapositions in which classical themes are integrated into South African pasts Empowering Educators Patrick Alan Danaher,Karen Noble,Kevin M.
