Education Department,1928 Learner Performance in South Africa Charles Edward Wickens Simkins,Andrew Paterson,2005 South Africa has done well to systematically expand its educational system and to lengthen the schooling experience of successive learner cohorts But the quality of the output from the school system has been questioned In seeking to identify the reasons for this it is important to relate educational outputs competencies as measured for instance by examinations or standardized tests to inputs Determining the relative contributions of the inputs of the school the household and the individual learner to educational outputs is not straightforward particularly since very little educational production function analysis has been undertaken in South Africa Until recently no South African school data has incorporated test results school characteristics and information on the household circumstances of individual learners necessary for this kind of analysis However the results from a survey of a sample of schools involved in the large scale Quality Learning Project QLP funded by the Business Trust have yielded such data The QLP data set offers a new analytical opportunity to address the question What are the effects of social and economic variables on educational outcomes in the QLP schools OECD Economic Surveys: South Africa 2013 OECD,2013-03-04 OECD s 2013 Economic Survey of South Africa examines recent economic developments policies and prospects Special chapters cover improving education quality and green growth Papers R.P. ,1963 Effective Schools Dennis M. McInerney,Martin Dowson,Shawn Van Etten,2006-04-01 Students arrive in our classrooms with complex sociocultural histories that include family cultural physical social emotional and prior learning experiences In order to be effective schools must directly address these complex histories in meaningful relevant and creative ways The aim of this volume is to examine research on effective schooling from a sociocultural perspective with a focus on developing the capacities of diverse students in diverse educational contexts The chapters in this volume cover a wide range of important topics as listed below The Practice of English as a Medium of Instruction (EMI) Around the World Carol Griffiths,2023-08-08 This edited volume presents eleven empirical papers reporting the existing literature and the results of an original study focusing on EMI English as a medium of instruction in a particular area Central and Eastern Europe Western and Southern Europe Nordic Baltic countries Central Asia the Middle East East Asia South East Asia North Africa Sub Saharan Africa South Asia and Latin America Each of these different areas tends to have its own ways of dealing with the EMI issue and these are brought together in a meta analysis in the final chapter Implications for the conduct of English as a medium of instruction are drawn both on a chapter by chapter basis and also in the meta analysis The examination of EMI on a contextual basis is a unique feature of this book setting it apart from others in the field which almost all deal with a single or limited context The volume will be of interest to policymakers institutional heads graduate students and their teachers and to thesis writers and researchers Papers ,1928 The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape
