Bodies, Speech, and Reproductive Knowledge in Early Modern England Sara D. Luttfring, 2015-07-16 This volume examines early modern representations of women's reproductive knowledge through new readings of plays monstrous birth pamphlets medical treatises court records histories and more which are often interpreted as depicting female reproductive bodies as passive silenced objects of male control and critique Luttfring argues instead that these texts represent women exercising epistemological control over reproduction through the stories they tell about their bodies and the ways they act these stories out combining speech and physical performance into what Luttfring calls bodily narratives The power of these bodily narratives extends beyond knowledge of individual bodies to include the ways that women's stories about reproduction shape the patriarchal identities of fathers husbands and kings In the popular print and theater of early modern England women's bodies women's speech and in particular women's speech about their bodies perform socially constitutive work constructing legible narratives of lineage and inheritance making and unmaking political alliances shaping local economies and defining delimiting male socio political authority in medical royal familial judicial and economic contexts This book joins growing critical discussion of how female reproductive bodies were used to represent socio political concerns and will be of interest to students and scholars working in early modern literature and culture women's history and the history of medicine

Cupid in Early Modern Literature and Culture Jane Kingsley-Smith, 2010-09-09 Cupid became a popular figure in the literary and visual culture of post Reformation England He served to articulate and debate the new Protestant theory of desire inspiring a dark version of love tragedy in which Cupid kills But he was also implicated in other controversies as the object of idolatrous Catholic worship and as an adversary to female rule Elizabeth I's encounters with Cupid were a crucial feature of her image construction and changed subtly throughout her reign Covering a wide variety of material such as paintings emblems and jewellery but focusing mainly on poetry and drama including works by Sidney Shakespeare Marlowe and Spenser Kingsley Smith illuminates the Protestant struggle to categorise and control desire and the ways in which Cupid disrupted this process An original perspective on early modern desire the book will appeal to anyone interested in the literature drama gender politics and art history of the English Renaissance

Tendings Nathan Snaza, 2024-01-22 In Tendings Nathan Snaza brings contemporary feminist and queer popular culture's resurging interest in esoteric practices like tarot and witchcraft into conversation with Black feminist and new materialist thought Analyzing writing and performances by Maryse Condé, Barbara Ehrenreich and Deirdre English. Starhawk, Christina Sharpe, Alexis Pauline Gumbs and others. Snaza introduces his theory of tending as a concept that links ontology, attunement, care and anticipatory action to explore how worlds persist through everyday acts of participation. In contrast to the universalizing presuppositions of the enlightenment, Snaza shows how certain feminist occult and esoteric practices constitute what he calls an endarkenment that embraces decolonial spiritual knowledge. Highlighting how endarkenment practices challenge universal presumptions and reject the racializing and colonialist mission of enlightenment modernity, Snaza demonstrates the ways esoterism affirms a pluriversal worldview that reimagines what it means to live in a more than human world.
